THE FARMERS WERE THERE.

OPENING DAY OF THE COUNTY FAIR AT FAIR GROUNDS.

Exhibits Are Good, But the Principal Attraction is the Horse Racing—Lowell Horses Win in the Races, While a Bicyclist Could Not Keep Up a Rapid Gait.

A better day atmospherically speaking, for the opening of a county fair than that which greeted the farmers and other members of the Middlesex North Agricultural society on the occasion of their opening yesterday could not be desired. Of course the first day, or rather a good part of it is taken up with preparatory work and is not the most interesting day of the three yet the attendance yesterday was very large considering this fact, the fine weather evidently inducing many to attend.

The fair grounds presented the same gala day appearance common to each year's fair. There were refreshment and lemonade stands innumerable, while here and there the loud mouthed fakir invited all to twirl the festive sphere at the head of the smiling "bluff" coon, the usual "Little Jenny" cigar being offered as a premium. Martha Mack had his new and gaudily painted lunch cart on hand and many of the rural visitors mistook it for an exhibit.

Sergt. Webster and a corps of policemen were on the grounds looking for trouble which fortunately never occurs at the fair, while Inspectors Allen and Laflamme dodged in and out of the crowds on the lookout for the members of the light fingered gentry, who follow the fairs.

At the same old place on the grounds near the stables the Hood's farm people had their cattle on exhibit, though but few of the famous animals were seen yesterday as they did not arrive until this morning.

The exhibition hall is filled with hundreds of exhibits and but few changes were noticed in it.

The basement of the main building has been re-floored and contains a fine exhibit of all kinds of poultry. Supt. John H. Nichols says this year's poultry show will be the best ever seen.

The floral department is unusually attractive, while that which contains the household work is surprisingly well filled. The other exhibits such as crops, etc., are equally interesting.

But the main attraction is the race course and very good events were run off yesterday though they were not as interesting as those on the program of today and tomorrow.

The first race was in the 2.50 class and was a "cinch" for the winner.

The score was as follows:

2.50 class. Purse $150.

Cora, b. m., D. W. Parker	1	1	1
Maud L., blk. m., F. A. Littlefield, Nashua	2	2	2
Alice K., b. m., F. S. Kingsbury, Lowell	4	3	3
Billy C., b. g., W. Gillmore, Lowell	3	4	4

Time; 2.41 1-4, 2.40 1-5, 2.42 1-2.

In the running race Charlie Keyes' Hot Drop was the favorite, but could get no better than third money. The score:

Half mile running race best 2 in 3. Purse $100.

Billy Crane, b. g., Arthur Timmins, Allston.	1	1
Sweet Marie, b. m., James Killian, Brighton.	2	2
Hot Drops, b. g., C. F. Keyes, Lowell	4	3
Irene, g. m., W. D. Gordon, Reading	3	4
Matilda, b. m., John N. Murroy, Brookline.	5	—

In the running race, Matilda's rider was caught napping in the second heat and was left at the pole. He kicked vigorously but to no avail.

Another feature of the racing program was the mile race between J. A. Dunham of the Y. M. C. A. bicycle club and Monkey Roller, Murphy & Bingham's pacer for a prize valued at $25. Dunham kept with the horse for the half mile making it in 1.15 flat, but on the second lap he dropped out, and Monkey Roller came in alone in 2.30.

The one mile novice bicycle race for medals resulted as follows: Frank H. Quimby, 1st; W. E. Coulter, 2nd; Peter H. Green, 3rd, time 2.39¼.

The three entries in the butcher's race finished as follows: Johnnie K., F. S. Kingsbury, 1st; Glenmore, Fred Tuttle, 2nd; Daisy Bell, Fred Walsh 3rd. A number of boy's races were also enjoyed.

An exhibition of live stock took place this morning and some fine racing is going on this afternoon.

A MALICIOUS ACT.

Story of an Elopement Which Gossips Busily Circulated Was Entirely False.

The story of an alleged elopement printed in THE SUN of yesterday, is strongly denied, and on investigation appears to be a story set afloat with malicious intent. It was one of many other stories apparently originating from the same source, but this one being of a more sensational nature than the others spread with greater rapidity and was added to by many gossips. As a matter of fact the gentleman described yesterday, THE SUN is informed, is a very well known and highly respected citizen and has not been out of town.

MEN IDENTIFIED

Constable Livingson is Positive As to Men.

Cornelius Nagle the Third Man Under Arrest is Charged With Murder.

Men Arraigned Before Judge Hadley and Held For Examination On the 24th.

Chain of Evidence Being Woven Around the Men and Sullivan is Positively Identified—Description of the Men As They Appeared in Court Today—Interesting Facts About the Tragedy.

Cornelius Nagle, aged about 20 years, was arrested at Somerville last night as the alleged third highwayman in the Duroy Foster affair at Billerica.

A very important clue as to the whereabouts of the three men, now under arrest for complicity in the Foster murder at Billerica Tuesday night, has been brought to light in Stoneham.

Night Officer John S. Scalley of that town, at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, while patrolling his beat near the Farm Hill station challenged three men who were coming into the town from the direction of North Woburn. Two of the men were walking briskly along the road in front of a covered wagon. The third man was on the seat of the vehicle managing the horse.

Officer Scalley has a good description and demanded of the men what business brought them into the town at that early hour of the morning.

The reply from one of the pedestrians was, "Oh, we have been over to Reading with some goods and got belated."

The officer could but think there was something suspicious about the men, but as they seemed willing to stop and chat with him as he could not connect them with any misdemeanor he returned their good night as they started down Franklin street toward Malden by way of Melrose.

Officer Scally has a good description of the men. He is positive from what he has heard of the general appearance of the prisoners that they are the men whom he met.

The horse hitched to the covered wagon seen in Stonham was a little, cadaverous animal, appearing altogether too small for the bulky vehicle. As to the name on the wagon Officer Scalley cannot make a positive statement. He saw the general outlines of the conveyance, but did not endeavor to hunt up any distinguishing characteristics. He says one of the men was tall and rather slim, and the other short and inclined to corpulency.

When the wagon was well into Franklin street, towards Melrose Highlands, Officer E. F. West of the Stoneham department saw it pass at a rapid rate, so fast in fact that he was unable to hail the men before they were out of sight.

It is interesting to note the journey of this much talked of covered wagon, just previous to and after the fatal shooting. It has not been proven that the men who occupied the conveyance were implicated in the robbery and subsequent murder.

The Wagon Marked "P. Sullivan"

was seen on Main street in Woburn up to 9 o'clock Tuesday evening by Officers McKenna and Fountain, who were on duty at that time. Then the wagon dropped out of sight, so to speak, until it was seen by Herbert Marion near Charlie Walker's hill, where the highway climbs up to Burlington, and just before the probable time when Foster was relieved of his money. Then the pursuing party had a conflict, and murder was committed. The covered wagon was at the scene, and Figured in the Fatal Affair.

The constable and his assistants had a good look at the vehicle during the few minutes before and after the melee. They are certain as to its identification.

When the wagon had gone into the darkness the pursuers lost track of it, but the signal man in the tower of the Boston & Maine railroad at North Woburn Junction, about 2 o'clock, saw a covered wagon pass very rapidly over the bridge in that locality.

As the murder was committed about 12 o'clock the men would have had ample time to cover the distance into Wilmington, where the railroad men saw the team pass. Milkmen often go by at that time in the morning, but there was something about this particular turnout that attracted the man's attention. It may have been the fast driving of its occupants.

It was near this point that Constable Livingstone lost the trail of the wagon tracks because of the hard condition of the road. He gave up the chase and went to Woburn, after learning that the signalman had seen the team pass. It was the opinion of the constable that the men would pass through Stoneham and he tried to obtain telephone connection with the police of that town, but the instrument was out of order and his plan was abortive.

About one hour after the covered wagon passed North Woburn junction, it turned up in Stoneham, and Officer Scalley talked with the men. Had the telephone worked in response to the constable's effort in Woburn, arrests no doubt would have been made.

It is probable that the team was driven from Billerica through Wilmington to North Woburn, thence to Central square, and by way of New Boston street to Stoneham.

The Next Heard of the Wagon.

was in Malden at about 4.30 o'clock, when a policeman got a good look at it and noticed the name "P. Sullivan" painted upon its side. At Malden all trace of men and wagon was lost.

Thus the covered wagon has been traced by the police during the eventful night, and, though the name it bore was not noticed in several instances, there are other points which seem to establish the connecting links in its identity. Though Officer Scalley, in Stoneham, did not see the name, he noticed the horse and men.

The wagon which is supposed to be the one seen on the night of the crime was taken in charge by the Somerville police last night.

Arrest of Nagle.

Cornelius Nagle of Somerville was arrested last night as the third man in the case. He was looked over by Officers Fountain and McKenna, who visited Somerville for the purpose, and it was reported in Woburn at a late hour last night that Nagle was one of the party seen in Woburn Tuesday night by those policemen.

All three men now under arrest on suspicion are related by matrimonial ties, Patrick J. Foley married Patrick Sullivan's sister, but Nagle himself is a single man. They are all associated together in business under the firm name of Sullivan, Ducey & Co.

People Talk About Nagle.

Somerville people who knew Nagle were not surprised at his arrest. Others could not believe him guilty of complicity in the crime. The general opinion seemed to be, however, that the present station in which all three of the men find themselves is rather dark.

It is common talk in Somerville that Nagle's brother-in-law, Sullivan, used to peddle liquor around town, from a wagon, in violation of the law.

Sullivan moved to Newton, and after two or three months returned to Somerville.

Since Sullivan returned from Newton he and Nagle have been engaged in carting dirt for builders and contractors.

Mr. Timothy Crimmins, a prosperous Somerville contractor, living on Joy street, spoke well of both Sullivan and Nagle last night. He has had considerable dealings with both.

Mr. Crimmins says Sullivan was at his house at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, only about three hours before the highway robbery of Mr. Foster in Billerica, which led to the murder. It is possible that the testimony of Mr. Crimmins may have an important bearing on the question of the guilt or innocence of the prisoners, as the case develops. Mr. Crimmins says that Sullivan called at that hour to collect a bill, and he paid Sullivan the amount, about $30.

Facts About Sullivan.

A reporter interviewed Patrick Sullivan's mother last night. She refused to talk about the case on the ground that she knew nothing about it whatever. Sullivan's sister, an attractive and ladylike young woman, also declined to talk.

Although Nagle, who lives with the family, had been under arrest nearly four hours, everybody expressed surprise at hearing the news.

There was a general air of gloom over everybody, but there was no indignation expressed over the arrest of two members of the family, and no statements were made as to the whereabouts of the men on the morning of the murder.

The only reply in the case of each person questioned was: "I don't know anything about it."

Mrs. Patrick Foley, wife of the third arrested man, was present at the Sullivan residence. She is an attractive young woman, almost a girl in appearance, and was prettily dressed.

Mrs. Foley says her husband was born in Ireland, and has been in this country about five years. Her husband, she says, has been a laborer ever since he came to this country, has always lived in or around Boston or Somerville, and can give the best references from every man he ever worked for.

"Do you care to say anything about your husband's whereabouts on the night of the murder?" Was asked Mrs. Foley.

"I have nothing to say about it," she replied.

"Will you say positively that he was at home at that time?" she was asked.

"I will not say anything about it, one way or the other," she replied with some asperity in her manner.

This was interesting in view of the reported intention of the three men to prove that they were in Newton on the night of the murder. If they were in Newton, and Mr. Crimmins' statement is correct, they must have gone there after 7 o'clock in the evening.

Held For Murder.

The court room was crowded this morning when the three men charged with the murder of Duroy Foster were brought in and arraigned.

The regular business was transacted quickly and when the dock had been cleared they came up, Foley in the lead, followed by Sullivan and Nagle.

As they sat in the dock before being called, they were the cynosure of all eyes.

Cornelius Nagle, the latest capture, is the youngest of the trio, and has barely reached his majority. He is of medium height and rather slim, with light blue eyes, short hair and a week's growth of hair on the upper lip. He wore a flannel working shirt, brown cardigan jacket, light trousers and brown stiff hat. As he sat in the dock, he appeared unconcerned, probably not fully realizing the awful charge against him. His sister is the wife of Sullivan.

Patrick Foley is older and of light complexion with red moustache. He was the best dressed of the three and was attired in a black suit, with a white shirt and no collar. He also seemed indifferent. He is married to Sullivan's sister.

But not so with Sullivan for he appeared worried over his fate and listened attentively to everything which transpired, his face appearing considerably drawn. He is the one of the three who would be picked out as the probable guilty party. He wore a black cutaway coat and light pants and wore a flannel shirt. He has curly hair and is a big man in stature.

Lawyer F. P. Curran of Woburn appeared for all three and waived the reading of the charge which was murder.

They pleaded not guilty.

Judge Hadley has decided to hold the hearing in Lowell at the police court and the date set was Sept 24.

The prisoners were committed to jail without bail, and will be transferred to the East Cambridge jail, to be nearer their attorney.

The government witnesses who recognized were Selectman E. B. Haskell of Billerica, Chief of Police McIntosh of Woburn, Inspector D. J. Kelly of Somerville, Officer James J. Scally of Stoneham, State Officers James Bean of Natick and J. C. Neale of Lynn.

It is said that the strongest case is against Sullivan.

District Attorney Weir and the Lowell police have the case in hand.

Men Are Identified.

It was stated at noon that Constable Livingston saw the three prisoners and positively identified them as the three men he saw on Wednesday morning.

NEARLY MANGLED.

Drunken Man Had a Close Squeeze From Loss of Both Legs.

When the 11 o'clock train backed into the Merrimack street station the brakeman on the rear platform saw a man sitting on the edge of the platform with his feet on the track. The brakeman yelled and scared the man just enough to make him pull up his feet and legs as the cars went by. Another second the man would have lost his feet and possibly been frightfully mangled. The passengers on the platform had a fright as well.

MORE POLITICAL BICKERINGS.

TO BE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR SENATOR.

Mr. Burke Denies That He is a Candidate For Congress—A New Paper to Reconstruct the English Language.

Circulars have been sent to prominent citizens of one denomination only soliciting subscriptions and advertisements for a new paper soon to be started in this city. In the accompanying letter there are two misspelled words, "consistant" and "doctrins." The so-called endorsements of the projects are headed by "corroberation" showing again the novel methods of spelling to be introduced. Not only are American institutions to be revolutionized but the English language is to be remodelled and reconstructed. The capitalization of the circular reminds one of a copy of the scriptures printed soon after Cadmus carried the alphabet into Greece. The sum of $2 in advance is demanded on receipt of the first issue so that the subscribers have to take all risks.

John C. Burke, Esq., denies that he has consented to run for congress. He is willing to stand by the party nominee, but does not seek the nomination for congress or any other office. Undoubtedly Mr. Burke would make an able candidate for congress and would be a brilliant representative of the party but he is not in the race on this occasion. He has stated that although approached by several prominent democrats on the subject of accepting the congressional nomination, he has steadily refused. He is too busily engaged to enter a contest which would draw heavily upon his time

Dr. Lathrop and Andrew G. Swapp are said to have decided upon getting out of the school board this year.

John A. Gately is mentioned as a candidate for the school board in Ward Three. He is a graduate of the high school and a rising young lawyer. He was teacher in an evening school for some time. Dr. Kelley, the dentist, who has been a candidate on several previous occasions is a candidate again this year. He is well known in the ward.

Republicans of this city are all out for E. S. Foss for senatorial candidate. Hon. C. D. Palmer was mentioned for the fight but he is not willing to enter any such contest at present. It may therefore be assumed that Brady and Foss will be the candidates this year and that the fight will be a hot one. Every democrat from this time forward should keep "cutting ice" for Brady.

The republican candidates for representatives have filed their nomination papers as follows:

In the 21st district, Ward Two, George E. Putnam, E. T. Rowell and H. Cluer.

The 23d district, Ward Three, Thomas H. Husband.

The 24th district, Charles F. Varnum and George A. Roper.

The 25th district, Ward Five, Bill Hayes, George F. Morey, Councilman Noble and Charles M. Erskine.

The French republican club met at Jackson hall, last night, with P. A. Brosseau as chairman and Aime Gauthier as secretary. Addresses of a strong republican tincture were the features of the evening.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of George McGovern took place yesterday afternoon from his parents' home on Andover street and was well attended. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Sarah Heenan was buried yesterday from her late home in Sutherland street; services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morang. The remains were interred in the Edson cemetery.

The funeral of Eucstine Benard took place yesterday morning from St. Joseph's church. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Amyot O. M. I. assisted by Rev. Manin, O. M. I. deacon and Rev. Fr. Feat, O. M. I., sub deacon. The church was heavily draped and presented a sombre appearance. The choir was directed by A. N. Duval and rendered the plain Gregorian chant, Philias David and A. N. Duval sustaining the solos, while the choruses were by the full choir of which deceased was a member. At the Offertory, Miss Angeline Cote rendered "Pie Jesu." The bearers were Henry Lanthier, Edward Montplaisir, Hormisdas Gervais, Henry Wilbrenner, Absolon Legault and Louis M. Lemerise. The floral tributes included a pillow inscribed "sister" from the family of the deceased; a "broken lyre from a number of friends, a spray of roses, Mrs. M. E. Jutras, Montreal, Can.; spray of lilies, the Lemerise family; spray of snow drops, Mrs. Gaspard Drainville, Woonsocket, R. I.; spray of white roses, Miss Montplaisir; bouquet, Mrs. Brigham; wreath of immortelles, Miss Minnie Davey; spray of roses and mignonettes, Mrs. Duval; spray of roses and ferns, Miss Charlotte; bouquet, Mrs. L. P. Turcotte; spray of tube roses and palms, the Misses Jennie and Ella Burke.

A Lawn Party Next Week.

At the meeting last evening, Scotia lodge, I. O. G. T., arranged for a lawn party at Cameron's farm in Dracut Sept. 20. The following literary program was rendered; readings by W. Large, C. Mitchell and J. Scott, vocal solos by J. Wilson, A. McDougald and F. Irwin, a dialogue by L. Mitchell and J. Scott, and a charade by A. Sutcliffe and W. Large.

No. Billerica council, R. A., will hold a concert in Talbot Memorial hall this evening. A fine program will be given.

EVIDENCE ALL IN.

Debs' Case Likely to Drag Along Till the End of the Year.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Much to the surprise of every one, the defense announced yesterday afternoon, when the last witness had been heard in the Debs case, that they would state their case on the evidence before the court. Mr. Gregory said that the defense had some witnesses who could modify the testimony, but the cardinal points would probably not be affected. He said that he and his associates would therefore refrain from putting witnesses in rebuttal on the stand, and would be ready after a reasonable time for the preparation of abstracts of evidence to go before the court with their arguments.

This was apparently a great surprise to Mr. Walker and his associates, who represent the prosecution. However, after some preliminary stipulation as to the preparation of papers, Judge Woods adjourned court until Sept. 25, when the arguments will be heard. Twenty days after that the defense will present its briefs and the whole matter will go to the court.

Counsel for the defense express themselves as confident that the government has not made its case on testimony produced and are confident of being able in the end to free Mr. Debs and the other officers and directors of the American Railway union from the contempt and charges.

On the other hand, counsel for the prosecution are quite as confident of success. The judge has never through the trial given the least intimation as to what he thought of the proceedings. He said yesterday, in court, that he rather wanted to hear some collateral proceeding of a similar character before he finally decided the case. It is thought that the case may run well into December before it is finally ended.

A Villainous Trio.

AKRON, O., Sept. 14.—Two colored men broke into the house of George Woehlhueter in the very heart of this city yesterday. The men went to Mrs. Woehlhueter's room and beat and assaulted her. She was then bound and gagged and thrown into the cellar. The house was then fired to obliterate all traces of the crime. Mrs. Woehlhueter's condition is critical. Police and citizens are searching for the villains.

Killed His Wife.

LEBANON, Pa., Sept. 13.—Mrs. Charles Garret, aged 26 years, was murdered here yesterday by her husband, who cut her throat from ear to ear. Garret had just been released from the penitentiary after serving a sentence for assault upon a neighbor. The murderer escaped and is still at large.

Bank Robbers Got $10,000.

DANVILLE, Ills., Sept. 14.—The Citizens' bank at Rossville was robbed of between $9000 and $10,000. The officials locked the bank and went to dinner, leaving the key to the back door sticking in the lock on the inside. The robbers succeeded in gaining an entrance by using nippers on the key.

Advised to Stay Out.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 14.—The textile amalgamation held an adjourned meeting yesterday afternoon to receive an answer from manufacturers to the request for a conference. No answer was received, as many of the manufacturers are out of town, and those here claim that there is nothing to confer about. It was voted to recommend to different unions that all operatives remain away from the mills in case an attempt was made to start any of them under a reduction in wages.

Ex-Sultan Is Dead.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 14.—Ex-Sultan V, who was deposed Aug. 31, 1876, in favor of his younger brother, the present sultan, Abdul Hamid II, is reported dead. When Murad was deposed he was declared to be suffering from idiocy. He was born Sept. 21, 1840, and was proclaimed sultan on May 30, 1876.

Liquor Probably to Blame.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Sept. 14.—William Chapman, 37 years old, a locomotive engineer, is under arrest for an attempt to shoot his sister. Chapman, it is alleged, has been drinking for a week. His wife has left him on account of his dissolute habits. William refuses to discuss the matter.

A Treacherous Youngster.

METROPOLE, Ills., Sept. 14.—John Martin a 19-year-old white boy, is under arrest for committing an assault upon Maria Cooley, a 75-year-old colored woman. Martin was thwarted in accomplishing his purpose by the old lady drawing a butcher knife after he had thrown her down.

A Plucky Pacer.

MEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 14.—Gil Curry in the 2:12 pace at Mystic park yesterday did the prettiest racing of the meet. In the third heat he threw a shoe, lost a boot and cut himself at the half, but came in from third place half a length ahead of Roan Wilkes.

Couldn't Move It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—It has been found impracticable to attempt to move the administration building of the World's fair at Chicago to Atlanta. The Chicago Wrecking company will get the building for $3000.

Injuries May Kill Him.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Sept. 14.—William Verritt, a stevedore, fell 30 feet from top of a wharf to the deck of a vessel and received internal injuries which will probably prove fatal.

New National Bank For Vermont.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The application for authority to organize the national bank of Bristol, Vt., has been approved by the comptroller.

Texas Trains Tied Up.

SAN DIEGO, Tex., Sept. 14.—Seven hundred feet of track on the Mexican railroad have been washed away by the floods. All trains are tied up.

Gotham Favors Morton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The regular Republican organizations held conventions last night to select delegates for the Republican state convention. At least 80 of them are said to be Morton men, 20 anti-Morton and 17 doubtful.

Brice Will Resign If Censured.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 14.—Friends of Senator Brice here say that if the Democratic convention next week adopts resolutions censuring him for his course toward the Wilson bill, he will at once resign.

Said to Be Untrue.

ROME, Sept. 14.—Officials at the Vatican deny the story that two suspected anarchists had been discovered lurking in the Vatican gardens.

Fell Twenty Feet.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—Joseph M. Nottage, 2 years old, was killed last evening by falling 20 feet from a building on Summer street.

ALCOHOLIC DUTY

Will Not be Settled for Some Time.

SEVERAL LOOPHOLES IN THE TARIFF LAW

Which Are Causing the Treasury Much Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The delegation representing the National Wholesale Druggists' association, headed by George A. Kelly, had another consultation with Secretary Carlisle and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller yesterday for the purpose of presenting further suggestions looking to the enforcement of the provision in the new tariff bill for free alcohol for use in the arts and medicinal preparations and other like compounds.

Mr. Kelly presented a brief, covering such suggestions as the committee had formulated looking to the relief of the department from its present embarrassment and to giving reasonable protection to the government from fraud.

After the reading of the brief, Secretary Carlisle pointed out the difficulty of enforcing any regulations which did not define the classes of manufacturers to whom they applied, and the necessity for some of any person claiming the benefit of the law, in order to procure proper supervision and the authority of the department to impose anything in the nature of a tax for supervision upon a manufacturer.

Ex-Governor Boutwell, who was present for counsel for interested persons, answered some of these suggestions, claiming that the power to prescribe regulations included the power to charge for the expenses of executing the law. He cited as an analogous case the fund arising from the sale of cotton during the war, where the expenses of sale and seizure were paid out of the fund collected.

Secretary Carlisle pointed out the difficulty in defining "medicinal preparations and other like compounds," and in the course of the discussion that followed, it developed that certain tinctures and preparations contained as high as 94 per cent of alcohol. This, he pointed out, would give opportunity for the sale of all sorts of alcoholic beverages

As Medicinal Preparations.

The representative of a firm of "bitters" entered a protest against any classification which might exclude "bitters" as medicinal preparations, on the ground that their use would largely increase if druggists, in order to sell them, were requested to take out liquor licenses. A conflict as to the extent of the business of manufacturers entitled to the benefit of the law was made apparent at the conference, when the question of "bonded warehouses" was discussed.

In Germany grain alcohol for use in the arts is free of tax. The secretary said at the conclusion of the discussion that if it could be done it was his duty to execute the law. Some further briefs will be presented before the secretary makes his final decision.

Hodgkins Was "In It."

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Sept. 14.—At the inquest yesterday on the fatal disaster at Hoosac Tunnel on Saturday last, A. M. Crosier, operator at the east portal of the tunnel, said that he understood Operator Hodgkins, at the west portal, to reply on being told that he had not been given extra 245 east: "I am in it, but I don't care so much if no one is hurt."

Viewed From Three Standpoints.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The Republican newspapers regard the manifesto of the Duc d'Orleans as purely platonic and not affecting France in any way. The Royalist papers warmly eulogize the manifesto. Organs of the Clerical party suspend judgment upon it while awaiting action upon the part of the new head of the house of Orleans.

Crew Safely Landed.

ALPENA, Mich., Sept. 14.—A lifesaving crew has arrived with the crew of 14 of the steam barge Enterprise, which went aground at North Point. She will probably go to pieces. She was loaded with grain. But for the timely assistance her crew would have been drowned.

George W. Collins, a well-known resident of Bennington, Vt., has been missing since Sept. 1. Collins was for a time in an insane asylum, but his wife is positive as to his sanity.

A Costly Blaze.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 14.—Fire in the two story building extending from 7 to 17 McKibben street, occupied as a planing mill, caused a loss of $70,000. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Campania's Time Beaten.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Cunard liner Lucania, Captain McKay, which sailed from New York Sept. 8, has broken the Campania's eastward record by nearly two hours.

Kaffirs Give It Up.

PRETORIA, Sept. 14.—The chief leaders of the insurgent Kaffirs, after continued fighting, have surrendered to the Boer command—

Among the best fall suits are blue and black WORSTED SERGES.

There are quantities of imitatation goods shown—notably diagonal wool cheviots—but these have neither the lustre nor durability of true worsted.

We've liberal quantities of real worsted serges from our own workrooms and Rogers, Peet & Co., in the fashionable blue and black for $10, $15, $20 a suit.

The length of the coat is exactly right,—conforming to the fashion plate used by the best merchants throughout the country.

THE NEW PROBATE JUDGE

SKETCH OF HON. GEORGE F. LAWTON OF CENTRALVILLE

Who Will be Confirmed by the Executive Council Next Thursday to Fill a Position Under a New Law.

Lawyer George F. Lawton who will become an "honorable" if confirmed as judge of probate and insolvency, under the new law on Thursday next was born in Lowell, 47 years ago.

He was graduated from the public schools, enlisted just before the close of the war—they wouldn't take him before on account of his age—and then entered Williams college, graduating in due time. He was principal of the Green school several years, first on Middle street and later in the new building. He was admitted to the Middlesex bar in 1877, Judge Charles S. Lilley gaining admission at the same time.

For several years Mr. Lawton had an office in Boston as well as in Lowell, making a specialty of cases coming under the national bankruptcy act. He closed the Boston office when it ceased to be a law. He was elected city solicitor in 1880, and served the city in that capacity also in '81, '82, '85 and '86. In the latter year he resigned to become superintendent of schools, having been elected to fill an unexpired term. For five years after that he was unanimously re-elected, when he declined to serve longer, returning to the practice of law, and again opening his desk in the office of his brother, ex-Senator Frederick Lawton, with whom he had been associated in partnership until 1880.

Mr. Lawton was a member of the school committee in 1874, and was for several years a member of the republican city committee, serving last year as its chairman. He is a Mason having held office in Kilwinning lodge, a member of Centralville lodge of Odd Fellows, a Knight of Pythias, and a member of Post 120 G. A. R. He was married in 1877, and has two children. His home is on Beacon street.

A School Teacher Married.

A wedding occurred last evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist church, when Mr. Hubert H. Logan of C. I. Hood & Co's establishment was united in marriage to Miss Hattie S. Simpson, one of the teachers of the Lakeview primary school. Dr. Seymour performed the ceremony. The King's Daughter's of the First Baptist church graced the wedding. Mrs. Logan is one of their number. Mr. and Mrs. Logan will reside on Third street Centralville.

Trains by this division leave Lowell from Central street station. Leave Boston from the new Union Station, Causeway Street. ‡ Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

BARRETT HAS gagged Hayes for the present by a challenge to a joint debate.

THIS is the season of agricultural fairs. The Old Middlesex North should be encouraged by Lowell patronage. It is a deserving institution.

Lowell is still floundering around trying to decide on a site for that normal school. —Lawrence Sun.

The state board of education, not Lowell, has had the matter in hand for months past.

THE AERONAUT who descends on a parachute is engaged in a risky business. The aspirant for office who goes up in a political balloon should carry a parachute with him so that there will not be too much of a drop.

COL. LAWLER of Illinois will be the standard bearer of the Grand Army for the coming year. He will witness the mustering out of a large number of veterans if he presides over their destinies for an entire year.

JUDGING FROM the frequent murders in Massachusetts and vicinity it would appear that the murderers have lost all dread of punishment. It behooves the police to ferret out the perpetrators of the Foster murder.

IT INDICATED weakness in Randall of Fall River to appeal to Gov. Greenhalge against the police commission's opposition. There is nothing in the constitution of the commission that forbids them exercising the rights of citizenship.

THE SITUATION in New Bedford and Fall River is not very encouraging. The New Bedford operatives are in hopes the mills will start up soon but they have no certainty in the matter while the Fall River operatives now idle want a ten per cent. increase in wages on resuming work.

THE MAIL pretends to see only a contest for the sub-committeeship of the Lincoln school in the delay in opening the building and in electing a principal. There is no such contest. The chief cause of the delay is a contest between republicans and democrats for the office of principal.

THE WEATHER indications of the Lynn Press read thus:

It may not be amiss to remark that it has been extremely hot during the last few days. It will be hotter in the next eight and a cool wave need not be looked for until after the republican caucuses.

It is in the thick of the Barrett-Hayes fight.

The Lowell SUN wonders if candidate Busiel, whom the New Hampshire republicans have nominated for governor, is a "man of destiny." We cannot answer as to that. But the delegates who nominated him know him to be a man of money.—Waltham Tribune.

The delegates know that for a fact do they? Does this imply that Busiel used money to secure the nomination?

SOME POPULAR GRIEVANCES.

The board of trade should lecture the city council on the admission of a lot of fakirs and intinerant dealers who take a store for a week or two to flood the city with alleged bankrupt goods which are nothing more or less than the rubbish of shop worn stock from large sweat shops in various parts of the country. They go from town to town cheating and imposing upon the people and passing off their rotten goods at more than a fair value. This is an injustice to the regular merchants. The latter should form a league to drive all the itinerant dealers and fakirs out of the city.

Another injustice which is practised upon the people is that of allowing a plumbers' trust to be established. All competent plumbers are to be registered and nobody else can do any plumbing on buildings without violating the law. It appears now that the plumbers having the business thus confined to a select few make prices to suit themselves. There are loud complaints of extortionate charges among property owners but it appears that since the board of health has endorsed the plumbers' guild there is no remedy. The whole is justified and legalized as a sanitary reform and like other sanitary reforms it is a costly one.

The street watering law is a new piece of legislation of the same character. To those who can water their own streets without expense it is an extortion and an injustice.

The ice monopoly conducted by Daniel Gage is another business which imposes upon the people by extraordinary prices. Ice can be imported from New Hampshire and sold cheaper than it is at present by Daniel Gage.

These are a few things of which the people complain just at present, a few grievances which should be remedied as soon as possible. The people who complain have only to keep on complaining and the desired change will be effected in due time.

When wheat is high and the crop is large and the foreign demand is good we have an infallible indication of general prosperity throughout the country.—Lowell SUN.

Will the SUN explain how the foreign demand for wheat can influence the prosperity of this country.—Lawrence Tribune.

Well yes. If there is a great demand for wheat there will probably be an equal demand for other cereals. And if a great demand the price will be high. This will afford a profitable market for American farm produce and as the farming industry is the basis of national prosperity the foreign demand will thus enable it to thrive and consequently give an impetus to general prosperity throughout the country.

ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOWLTON has applied for an injunction to stop the business of the sugar trust in this state until it shall have complied with certain provisions of the statutes requiring it to file financial statements of its affairs with the corporation commissioners. Any method of throttling this monopoly will meet general approval and the Attorney General by his action has the approval if not the applause of the general public.

IT WAS ONLY BINKS.

He Explains What His Position Is In the Household.

There is a telephone in their residence, and as it is used principally by Mrs. Binks and her friends it is perhaps natural that it should be identified solely with Mrs. Binks, and that Mr. Binks —well, Mr. Binks answered when the bell rang a few nights ago, and this is the conversation that took place:

"Hello!"

"Well?"

"Is this Mrs. Binks?"

"No."

"I mean is this Mrs. Binks' telephone?"

"No; it's the company's."

"Well, is this Mrs. Binks' house?"

"I don't know. I'm beginning to think that perhaps it is."

"What?"

"Yes. I guess it is. Every one seems to think it is anyway."

"Is Mrs. Binks' daughter there?"

"No."

"Well, who is this?"

"Oh, this is only Mrs. Binks' husband, the father of Mrs. Binks' daughter, the man who lives in Mrs. Binks' house and occasionally drives Mrs. Binks' horses. She got him with the house, you know."

"Oh, she did!"

"Yes, she did."

"Tough on Mrs. Binks, isn't it?"

That telephone will probably be taken out of the house.—Exchange.

Geologic Time.

Professor C. D. Wolcott expresses the opinion, contrary to that entertained by some eminent scientists, that geologic time is not to be measured by hundreds of years, but simply by tens of millions. This is widely different from the conclusion arrived at by Sir Charles Lyell, who, basing his estimate on modifications of certain specimens of marine life, assigned 240,000,000 of years as the required geologic period. Darwin claimed 200,000,000 years, Crowell about 72,000,000, Geikie from 73,000,000 upward, Alexander Winchell about 3,000,000, while McGee, Upham and other recent authorities claim from 100,000,000 up to 680,000,000.—Philadelphia Ledger.

WOMEN WHO SUFFER

each month can find relief and emancipation from their troubles. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and certain remedy compounded by an eminent physician for those weaknesses common to women. Backache, Irregularity, Headaches, Dizziness, Leucorrhea, Womb Troubles, and Nervousness, are readily cured by the "Prescription." Dr. Pierce has received hundreds of testimonials. Here is one:

Freytown, Lackawanna Co., Pa.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—Several years ago I took your "Favorite Prescription." At that time, I was so miserable (and had been so for many years) that I could scarcely drag myself around. I concluded to try your medicine. I took half a dozen bottles and I have not had a return of my old trouble.

Hoping others will be benefited as I have been, I remain, Sincerely, MRS. C. H. BAKER.

She—I can't help thinking I've seen your portrait in the newspapers somewhere.

He—Oh, no doubt. It's often been published.

She—Then I am not mistaken. What were you cured of?—Pick Me Up.

He Didn't Like It.

Captain Westfall was until seven years ago commander of a steamboat plying on the Ohio river. The captain happened to be on deck about midnight when a young fellow came dashing out of his room with a dissatisfied look on his face. Of course the captain wanted him to be comfortable and went up to him.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"I can't sleep," was the answer.

"Why, are you sick?"

"No, but I can't go to sleep with one of those d——d things on," the man grumbled.

"What things?"

"One of these life preservers."

"What in the world did you get into one of those circular life preservers for?"

"What did I do it for?"

"Yes."

"Why, isn't it the rule of the boat that passengers are not allowed to go to bed without having on one of those concerns?"

The captain smiled. "You've been worked," said he.

"What!" he gasped shamefacedly. "A cousin of mine warned me when I left home to be sure and put on a life preserver, or you wouldn't let me ride."

The young man slipped back into the stateroom, and the captain did not hear from him further.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

So Much Female Suffering Needless

Mrs. Julia A. Rice, Florence, Kentucky, says:—

"I suffered eight years

"From woman's early troubles.

"I could find no permanent relief until, one year ago, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief then came with it almost immediately, and at this time I am a well woman.

"I absolutely know, not only by my own experience, but by others also, that this is a harmless and sure remedy for:

"Irregularity, suppressed or painful menstruations, weakness of the stomach, sick headache, and female complaints generally. There is no need of so much female suffering. Here is the remedy. It is wicked not to accept the relief it will bring." At druggists.

ELLINGWOOD'S

Coca Wine

Made from fresh Coca Leaves, a pleasant tonic and gentle stimulant, agreeable to the taste, and suitable for young as well as elderly people.

Coca leaves were used by the Indians of South America from the earliest times for every ailment, from a simple cut to Neuralgia and Headache, and while chewing it they pass whole days in traveling or working without food, eating heartily in the evening without inconvenience, and passing the night in refreshing sleep.

ELLINGWOOD'S COCA WINE has been used by our local physicians and is acknowledged as the most reliable of any in use. They have found it to be a palatable, diffusible, stimulating tonic, sustaining life by retarding waste, removing fatigue, and restoring and improving the appetite.

CONVALESCENTS will find Ellingwood's Coca Wine especially useful, as the stimulation produced by a medium dose is slow and sustained, and is different from the excitation produced by other wines.

COLONEL LAWLER

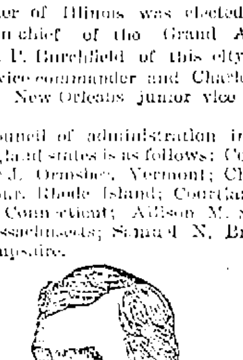
Is Grand Army Commander-in-Chief.

AN APPEAL TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS

To Aid in Abolishing Alleged Prescription.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 14.—Colonel Thomas G. Lawler of Illinois was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army. Major A. P. Burchfield of this city was elected vice commander and Charles H. Shute of New Orleans junior vice commander.

The council of administration in the New England states is as follows: Colonel Ebenezer J. Ormsbee, Vermont; Charles A. Barbour, Rhode Island; Courtland S. Darrow, Connecticut; Allison M. Stickney, Massachusetts; Samuel N. Brown, New Hampshire.



COMMANDER LAWLER.

Thomas G. Lawler was born in Liverpool, Eng., in [illegible], came to Illinois when a child, received his education in the public schools of Rockford, Ills. At the age of 17 he enlisted as a private in company E, Nineteenth Volunteer Infantry, in June, 1861, serving three years and three months. He was with his company and regiment in every battle in which they were engaged, and with the colors of his regiment was the first man over the Confederate works at the battle of Missionary Ridge, Nov. 25, 1863.

He served as private, sergeant and was elected first lieutenant, but not mustered. He commanded his company for two months during the Atlanta campaign, was elected by the vote of his company and placed upon the roll of honor by order of Major General Rosecrans, commanding the Army of the Cumberland. He organized the Rockford Rifles in 1876, and made it the most efficient and best-known military organization in the west.

He was elected colonel and commanded the Third regiment, Illinois National Guard, for several years, when he resigned in order to give younger officers a chance for promotion. He was postmaster at Rockford under the Hayes, Garfield and Harrison administrations and is now engaged in the lumber and coal business. Colonel Lawler was one of the first members of G. L. Nevins post No. 1, department of Illinois. He had been its commander for 26 consecutive years.

The Government Censured.

Among the resolutions adopted were the following:

Whereas, the 28th national encampment of the Grand Army has been informed of the distress that has fallen upon many comrades and wards of the order through the withdrawal from them of that preference in the public service to which they are justly entitled, and it should be always the grateful duty of the authorities of the national government to accord,

Resolved, That the Grand Army protest to the people of the United States against the conduct of those of their public servants, more particularly at the national capital, without necessary justification or valid excuse, and contrary to the repeated declarations and assurances of the legislative and executive authorities of the government, have deprived many hundreds of honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy, and the widows, sons and daughters of those deceased, of their employment in the public offices and establishments, for the purpose of appointing or retaining other persons, destitute of the loyal and patriotic claims of these victims, or of superior qualifications for the places thus taken from those to whom they rightfully belong.

Resolved, That we view with great concern this attack upon those who, in the hour of the country's great need, laid aside their political preferences and became defenders of the Union, offering their lives to the nation to maintain its institutions and preserve the honor of its flag.

Resolved, That our comrades and wards who are holding employment under the government should have, and they have, the right to demand from the executive authorities the protection awarded them by the national legislatures, and any failure on the part of those authorities to so protect them is a violation of law and of patriotic principles, which excites our strongest reprobation.

Resolved, That inasmuch as the efforts of the national and department officers of this organization against this virtual proscription of the comrades and wards of the Grand Army have proved practically unavailing, an appeal is hereby made to the people of the United States for an expression through the columns of the public press, the speeches and writings of public men and the proceedings of public assemblies upon fit occasion of the national sense of gratitude and desire for justice toward the meritorious survivors of the Union forces and those whom the deaths of husbands and fathers have left to the generous regard of the nation.

The Windup.

General Adams returned thanks for all the honors bestowed on him, and Past Commander-in-Chief R. B. Heath installed with all the ceremony of the ritual the elected officers, and all the Grand Army flags, records and effects were turned over to the new officials. Commander-in-Chief Lawler here grasped the gavel, but the new chaplain-in-chief, Haggerty, came to the footlights to pronounce the benediction and the 28th encampment was finished.

The resolutions censuring Colonel Ainsworth's conduct of the pension bureau and supporting Judge Long in his contest with the pension commissioner were not adopted.

This is the first time an encampment has concluded its business and elected and installed its officers in a sitting of two days.

The new commander-in-chief issued his first orders last night, appointing Comrade C. C. Jones of Rockford, Ills., adjutant general, and Comrade J. N. Burst of Syracuse, Ills., quartermaster general, and establishing headquarters at Rockford, Ills.

At the afternoon session of the encampment representatives of the Big Four and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroads guaranteed a 1 cent a mile rate for the next encampment. The Pennsylvania has given a similar guarantee.

A fitting close was a display of fireworks on the Monongahela river at the foot of Smithfield street. The citizens' committee outdid itself and furnished a display that has seldom been surpassed anywhere. At least 200,000 people were out.

Ladies Elect Officers.

The Woman's Relief corps elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Wallace, Chicago; senior vice president, Mrs. Morrison, Smithport, Pa.; junior vice president, Mrs. Herrick, Seattle, Wash.; treasurer, Mrs. Cheney, Detroit; chaplain, Mrs. Parker, Massachusetts.

The Ladies of the Grand Army elected the following: President, Mrs. Gunler, Chicago; senior vice president, Mrs. Toby, Indiana; junior vice president, Mrs. Hall, West Virginia; treasurer, Mrs. George, Washington; chaplain, Mrs. Reynolds, Wisconsin.

READY TO STRIKE.

Garment Workers of Boston Will Soon Take Decisive Action.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—At a meeting of United Garment Workers last night delegates from every shop in the city reported in favor of a general strike in this section. If such action is taken, about 4500 men will be involved. The most important grievance is that they are now working under what they call the piece and task system, better known as the "sweating system."

They claim that now they are earning from $4 to $9 per week. They are to demand that the contractors employ them by the week and that their weekly wages shall be not less than $2 for a day of nine hours.

A strong strike sentiment was apparent, and the various speakers urged emphatic action. The trouble in the trade in New York has sent a great deal of work to Boston, and offers what the men believe to be an unusual opportunity to gain their point.

A committee was appointed to draw up a formal demand on the contractors, and Monday night the question will be submitted to a mass meeting of the workers. Should the meeting endorse the act of the council the strike will be at once declared.

Alarmed Over Incendiaries.

MERCED, Cal., Sept. 14.—The people of this town are in a state of fearful excitement. Between daylight yesterday morning and noon there were seven fires, all incendiary in origin. Phosphorus has been found in haymows in nearly all the barns in town. Several stables were destroyed. Sheriff Warfield has issued the following proclamation: "All persons without business in the town of Merced are notified to leave immediately. All good citizens are requested to co-operate and see that the order is carried out before sunset." If the incendiaries are apprehended they will almost certainly be lynched.

Cambridge Took First Prize.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Sept. 14.—At the annual field day and tournament of the New England Firemen's League the contests were hot and sincere and there was fun galore. Five hundred dollars in prizes were distributed among the four leading companies. The Red Jackets of Cambridge, Mass., took first prize, with a distance of 195ft. 10in.; Hartford came next with 193ft. 8in.; Somerville, Mass., took third money by squirting 191ft. 1½in., and New Bedford, Mass., took the fourth prize on a distance of 187ft. ¾in. The prizes were $200, $150, $100 and $50.

Good Police Work.

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Sept. 14.—The police of this city last night arrested Cornelius Nagle, 22 years old and married, as one of the murderers of Duroy Foster. Nagle has been identified by the officers, who have already identified the other two prisoners, Foley and Sullivan, as one of the trio seen in the suspected peddlers' wagon on the night of the robbery and shooting. Nagle, Sullivan and Foley, it has been found, are brothers-in-law. The latest, and probably the last, prisoner is close mouthed, but the police are confident that they have the right men.

Life In the South.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 14.—Hiram Stephens, a merchant of Centerville, had some trouble with John Murphy several days ago, and yesterday the trouble was renewed. Both men opened fire, Stephens receiving a bullet in the abdomen. His 6-year-old son rushed to the rescue, only to be pierced by a bullet in the right side. Both will die.

A New Law Needed.

BROCKTON, Mass., Sept. 14.—Horatio Jacobs and Mrs. Addie L. Eldridge cannot be held legally responsible for the death of their alleged illegitimate child, who died from neglect. Counsel for the government admitted this in court. The woman was put on probation. Jacobs being held in $800 for the grand jury on the charge of adultery.

Satolli Has No News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Mgr. Satolli says that he has received no communication from Rome intimating that he would be recalled, or that he would be elevated to the rank of cardinal. He declined to discuss the probable action to be taken at the consistory to be held in December.

Chicago Builders on Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14—Seven hundred and fifty men at work on the new Marquette building went on strike yesterday and a riot was narrowly averted. Eighteen non-union Edison electric workers, who were the cause of the strike, were attacked and forced to flee to avoid bloodshed.

Inland Steamer Aground.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—A dense fog interfered with navigation on the upper Hudson yesterday for several hours. The steamer City of Troy went aground near Albany. Her passengers and freight were brought here by transport.

Scalded by an Explosion.

EAST SUMNER, Me., Sept. 14.—By the explosion of a kettle in a corn-packing shop here Walter Fields and William Jordan were badly scalded and Alfred Abbott and Charles Pomeroy received lighter burns.

Upheld by the Jury.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 14.—G. N. Hensen, president of the Citizens' Bank and Trust company, who killed J. B. Wert, whom he claimed ruined his wife and destroyed his domestic peace, was acquitted by the jury.

On the Chicago.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 14.—Rear Admiral Kirkland, who succeeded Rear Admiral Erben in command of the European station, hoisted his flag yesterday on board the United States cruiser Chicago.

McCullough Came to Grief.

ALBANY, Sept. 14. — J. McCullough, wanted in Boston for burglary, was arrested here yesterday. McCullough called at the postoffice for a letter, where the detective arrested him.

Received 1000 Volts and Will Recover.

HARTFORD, Sept. 14.—Tim O'Leary, a lineman employed by the Hartford Light and Power company, received a current of electricity of 1000 volts in his body and will recover. He was placing a converter on a high pole when he received the shock. His hands and one wrist were badly burned.

A Stitch In Time.

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—The Canadian government has decided to become a party to the convention agreed upon in Dresden in 1893 to prevent the introduction and spread of cholera. Canada will thus have better opportunities to prevent the spread of the disease.

No Arrests Just Yet.

AMESBURY, Mass., Sept. 14.—Dr. I. B. Bolton, who conducted the autopsy on the body of Watson Peck at Newton, denies the story that arsenic had been found. No arrests will be made until the analysis of the stomach is completed, if at all.

Other Convention News from Veterans at Pittsburg.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 13.—Col. Thomas G. Lawler of Rockford, Ill., was elected commander in chief of the G. A. R., by a majority of 11 votes over Col. I. N. Walker of Indianapolis, after the closest election in the history of the G. A. R.

The first business after the convention came together was the election of officers and Major T. Burchfield of Pittsburg, was chosen senior vice commander. For junior vice commander, Corp. Tanner nominated Philip N. Biglin, and the retiring department commander of Louisiana nominated Charles Shute. Mr. Biglin withdrew his name and Mr. Shute was chosen without ballot.

For surgeon general O. W. Weeks of Marion, O., was chosen. For chaplain T. H. Haggerty and Comrade Southard of Maine were named and the election was delayed.

While the election of council of administration was going on the ladies of the G. A. R., and the Women's relief corps entered the hall.

The Daughters of the Veterans of the G. A. R., have elected Mrs. Ellen M. Walker of Worcester, national president.

LOWELL'S VETERAN FIREMEN

THEY ARE PLAYING FOR GOLD AND GLORY TODAY.

Big Crowd Went to Pawtucket to the Ninth Annual Tournament of the N. E. V. F. A.

The Lowell Veteran Firemen were in high feather this morning when they left for Pawtucket, R. I., to the ninth annual muster of the New England Veteran Firemen's association. Here's hoping that they win something.

A despatch received by THE SUN at noon announced that the town was in gala attire and the veterans made the finest show in their history.

Won the Demorest Medal.

At the Fifth Street Baptist church last evening, the first Demorest medal prize contest ever held in the city, took place.

There was a large attendance and previous to the contest, prayer was offered by H. W. O. Millington. The names of the contestants and judges were published in yesterday's SUN. H. I. McLaughlin's subject was "Prohibition, the hope of the country," and to him was awarded the first prize. Bruce Gilman was a close second and was presented with a pocket knife.

Taking Time by Forelock.

The first of the weekly meetings of the license commission was held Tuesday evening, the only business of importance being the granting of a common victualler's license to Thais Proulx Gagnon, 103 Middlesex street. One over anxious aspirant for a place among the "77" of 1895 has already put in an application.

SHALL WOMEN HAVE SUFFRAGE

DEBATE BETWEEN HENRY BLACK- AND MR. HUNTINGTON.

Two Arguments Put Forth One for and the Other Against Giving Women the Right to Vote.

An interesting debate on the question of equal suffrage between Henry Blackwell, the celebrated advocate of women's rights on the affirmative and Rev. C. W. Huntington of the High street church on the negative occurred at the Worthen street church last night.

Mr. Blackwell opened the debate and said that in some respect men are superior to women but in others women are superior. Women do not drink as much as men and yet you attempt to enforce temperance laws by leaving women out. Women are more economical than men; they get less money and appreciate it more. Women are more chaste than men. If it were not so you would not have the happy homes you have.

But the strongest argument is that women are more law-abiding than men, and the crimes of which they are guilty are not of the violent kind. There are some classes of wrong that will never be put down until you elect women to make the laws. We have masculine qualities enough in the government but we have no feminine qualities. We have great trusts organized for the benefit of a class, and other trusts which will never be corrected until we elect women to office. We shall never have the best form of government until we are represented by women in our legislative bodies.

Rev. Mr. Huntington agreed with his opponent that in many respects women are superior to men. But to vote is not a natural right. Christianity has made woman superior to man in many respects and we all acknowledge that it is the field for which she is peculiarly fitted. But we should remember that equality of character is not the same as equality of function. Because woman is the equal of man in character it does not follow that she is his equal in the discharge of political duty and the assumption of political responsibility. Man is the natural bread-winner and protector; but if you give women a vote you reverse the conditions.

Many women do not care to vote and when there is a general desire on their part to vote, will be time to allow them the privilege.

Mr. Blackwell closed the debate and the spectators sided with him.

MANY FREAKS HERE.

They Cause the Small Boys to Gather on the Street.

There were many freaks seen on the street this morning. One was "My Aunt Sally" on stilts, a man dressed in woman's garb and walking about the street. Then there was a guy who rode a bike built of two wagon wheels, and made a holy show of himself. The miner with long hair from Butte, Montana, who hung out at Ellingwood's all day was a curio from the wild and woolly west.

Is There a Poker Shop?

The police while looking for a young man who stole money from his parents a few nights ago ran into a poker game in Barrister's hall, it is said. The players thinking a raid was going to be made got out in a hurry. A number of well known clothing and dry goods clerks were in the party.

Actors Stranded.

The manager of the Modern Heroine company which played in Music hall, last week, did a mean trick on his company yesterday, it is said. He jumped the town with the receipts, forgetting to allow the ghost to walk before leaving. The players who are all neat looking young men, are trying to make money enough to take them to their homes.

Free Show For Everybody.

The show we refer to is that now taking place at Moir Bros. & Co., for nine cents. Take in the show when you are down town and get a nine cent article which is surely worth twice or three times the price. The articles are in almost endless variety, and the sale cannot last long.

During its existence the firm has had great success and its frequent bargain sales draw the people like a magnet. They stock up with the best goods and buying strictly for cash are able to compete with the biggest bargain houses in New England. Do not forget the free show and big sale at 119, 121 and 123 Merrimack street.

THE FUNERAL OF FOSTER.

Buried From His Home In Burlington Yesterday.

The funeral of Duroy S. Foster took place from his Burlington home yesterday afternoon, Rev. Henry C. Parker of Woburn, pastor of the Unitarian church officiating. The bearers were sons of the deceased, Charles L., George H., Joseph L., and Daniel A. Foster. The remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery in the center of the town.

MY AUNT SALLY

Was a Funny Old Lady and She Kept Her Friends In a Continual Roar.

My Aunt Sally's first reception in Music hall last night was about as interesting and jolly an affair as was ever held in this family theatre. The piece is a farce comedy clear through and the company are just suited to the lines and parts. Wm. Gray was funny as Milwaukee Behr and his caste was in good hands. Aunt Sally will be at Music hall tonight and for two performances tomorrow.

Louis Aldrich in My Partner is already assured of a big house for the advance sale of seats for matinee and evening is quite large.

On Monday and Tuesday evening the Span of Life, with its bridge of acrobats will be one of the strongest sensational attractions of the season.

A CENTRALVILLE WEDDING.

Happy Event on Tuesday When a Well Known Young Man Took Unto Himself a Bride.

A very pretty wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rhodes, at 2 Fulton avenue, when their daughter, Jessie O., was united in marriage to Mr. Fred A. Dubois, a very well known and popular young man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Sinclair of St. Anne's church. The bride looked charming in a gown of ottoman silk, demi-train, with bridal roses, the veil was caught up with a diamond star, she also carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Jessie M. Jenkins who wore a gown of cream colored silk with pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. David D. Charron of Nashua. After the ceremony a reception was held which was attended by over 200 friends who took the opportunity of congratulating the happy couple. After the reception a bountiful supper was enjoyed by all. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and potted plants.

There were friends present from Boston, Nashua, Manchester, Stoneham, North Acton and other places. Mr. George Gamlin and Mr. Gideon Levarior acted as ushers. The presents were very handsome and numerous.

The groom is an employe of G. C. Taylor & Co., and the bride is a graduate of the Lowell Commercial college. The happy couple left for the White mountains, where they will spend a few weeks.

They will reside at the home of the bride's parents on their return, and will hold a reception Thursday evening, October 4th.

Base Ball Game Tomorrow.

The L. C. A. A. nine will play the Chelmsfords on the Dracut oval tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be remembered that on the previous game the score resulted in a tie 4 to 4. The Chelmsfords will have Hawes, the two Whitneys and several equally good players on their team and the contest will be one of the best of the season. The gate will be 15 cents as usual and the grand stand free.

BILLERICA'S FIRST TRAGEDY.

It Occurred Years Ago When a Lowell Man Stabbed a Billerica Man.

People at North Billerica are now talking about the first tragedy recorded in the town annals. It was years ago when a man named Hemenway had a fight over fishing privileges in the Concord river, at the north village, during which Lynch was stabbed nine times and killed by Hemenway. The murderer was brought to Lowell and tried for manslaughter and got off finally with a short sentence.

THE REED FRATRICIDE.

Hearing in the Case Was Held at Ayer Junction Today.

The hearing and inquest in the Reed fratricide case was held at the police court in Ayer today. District Attorney Wier conducted the case. Tomorrow Williard Reed will be taken before the district court at Ayer and given a hearing. Then he will be remanded to the East Cambridge jail.

In the interest over the Foster tragedy the Reed fratricide has been lost sight of this week. District Attorney Wier has plenty of work on hand.

SOME PLUMBERS ARE KICKING.

REAL ESTATE MEN HAVE OBJECTION TO THE LAW.

What is Said About the New Plumbers' Law and Liability of Forming a Trust.

The new law for the government of plumbers is creating great comment among people of all classes in this city, and opinions are freely expressed as to the justice of the law.

On the face of the act, relative to the licensing of plumbers and the supervision of the business of plumbing, it looks as though the bill was pushed through the legislature for the avowed purpose of organizing a plumbers' trust, which will exercise a monopoly of the business. The question is asked, "why should protection be given the plumbers' trade, while other trades are left open to competition?"

One would naturally suppose that those who have been engaged in the business prior to July, 1893, and who are entitled to licenses as plumbers upon this recommendation alone, would be quite satisfied with the law. Some of them are but the majority are not. Plumbers as a rule are liberal in their views, and the majority are not slow in denouncing those who advocated the passage of the bill requiring an examination of young men who have just completed their apprenticeship after serving three years or more.

Real estate owners also object seriously. A member of a local real estate firm said yesterday, "why in time the plumbers will have organized a trust of great proportions. Here they are setting down what price a man will pay for labor and then having a law passed stipulating that all jobs costing less than $100 will be done by day work. Now this is a 'roast' on the people. We could go around and get figures on small jobs and let them out to the lowest bidder, thereby saving a few dollars, but now it matters not who gets the work, we pay just as much and more than if we let it out by contract."

A number of young men who have been out of their time several months have been notified by the board of examiners that in order to be registered they must pass an examination. Several have endeavored to be registered without an examination but have been unsuccessful.

Men worry and fret when they become involved in a law suit, but they will have more cause to trouble themselves when they run up against the plumbers' act. They obtain justice in a case at law, but there is nothing but injustice in the act regulating the plumbing business.

Already steps are being taken to get the law repealed next year.

Will Attend the High School.

As a result of a recent examination and from the June list the following applicants have recently been admitted to the High school by vote of the High school committee: Martin H. Garo, Elliot Tilton, Kate Minahan, Annie McKenna, Thomas J. Finnerty, Jennie L. Lynds, Annie D. Pollard.

STATE NOMINEES

Put Forward by the Prohibition Party In the Old Bay State.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 14.—The prohibition state convention did all the raftershaking, floor-stamping and hand-clapping that could be expected of any convention when its president, Professor Evans, told of the wrongs of labor, the persecution of Coxeyites and strikers, and urged no compromise on liquor. "Better wait 100 years. Back to conscience! Back to justice! Back to God!"

The following nominations were made without opposition:

For governor, Alfred W. Richardson of Springfield; lieutenant governor, Samuel D. Shapleigh of Boston; secretary of state, Wilbur G. Farnham of Somerville; treasurer and receiver general, John M. Fisher of Attleboro; auditor, Wilbur F. Purrington of Williamsburg; attorney general, Frank N. Furbush of Natick.

The resolutions were substantially as follows: For suppression of drink traffic, and state sale of liquor for mechanical and medical purposes; against high license and Norwegian system; for extirpation of trusts; for public boards of arbitration, courts of conciliation and eight hours; for free and full ballot and woman suffrage; for perpetuation of non-sectarian public schools and rigid state supervision of private schools; for revision and rigid enforcement of immigration laws; for elastic currency and restoration of silver; for non-partisan tariff commission; for state control of railroad, telegraph and telephone monopolies and government ownership, if need be; for extension of civil service; for prohibition of alien ownership of real estate; for election by direct vote of president, vice president and United States senators; for one day's rest in seven; for uniform laws governing marriage and divorce; for justice from the Republican party in the use by minorities of Australian ballot; for the party itself as "the true party of the people."

BICYCLE RECORDS BROKEN.

BALD CAPTURES THE ONE MILE INTERNATIONAL RECORD

Titus Does Some Fast Cycling—Murphy, Johnson and Butler Gain New Honors.

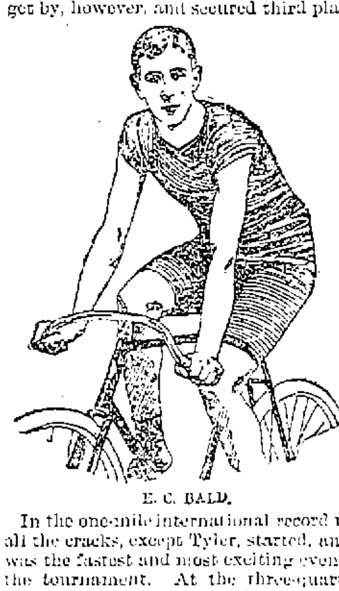
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 14.—Nearly 10,000 people went to Hampden park yesterday afternoon to witness the second day's races of the Springfield Bicycle club's diamond tournament, and they all came away satisfied. It was doubtless one of the greatest days of racing that has been seen in any city this season, and this is proven by the fast time made in every event.

The first race, which was the mile 2:30 class, was won by Fred H. Allen, but he was disqualified, and it is claimed he was the cause of the fall received by two of the riders on the backstretch.

The half mile open was a hard fight between Tyler, Bald and Cabanne, and the first two of these riders crossed the tape together, but the officials gave first place to Tyler, amid shouts of derision from the spectators.

An Accident at the Three-Quarters Mark.

In the one-mile handicap, class A, seven or eight of the riders fell at the three-quarters post and were slightly injured. W. F. Sims, the scratch man, managed to get by, however, and secured third place.



E. C. BALD.

In the one-mile international record race all the cracks, except Tyler, started, and it was the fastest and most exciting event of the tournament. At the three-quarters post Sanger made a tremendous spurt and took the lead, but Bald made a faster one and crossed the tape about a length ahead. Bliss also made a great final spurt and came in third, with Cabanne a close fourth. The time was 2:05 4-5, a world's record.

Sanger Wins the Class B Mile Handicap.

The one-mile handicap for class B riders was won by Sanger. Cabanne took second place in this event.

During the afternoon several successful attempts at record breaking were made. C. M. Murphy succeeded in lowering Tyler's world's record of 4:15 3-5 for two miles, paced, to 4:06 2-5, and Johnson broke the five-mile paced record, lowering it from 10:51 3-5 to 10:48 4-5.

Later in the afternoon Nat Butler took another slice off from the two-mile paced, flying start, record, lowering Murphy's time of 4:06 2-5 to 4:01 4-5.

Titus then lowered the hour record, covering 26 miles 1489 yards within the time limit. The world's record was held by Linturn, an Englishman, who covered 26 miles and 700 yards, while Meintjies' record made on the Springfield track last year was 25 miles 167 yards. In breaking the hour record, Titus also lowered several other records.

Returns All In.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 14.—The complete returns of the election show that there is not a Democrat in the senate and only four in the house. The vote of the state is as follows: Cleaves (Rep.), 69,061; Johnson (Dem.), 30,640; Hersey (Pro.), 2615; Bateman (Pop.), 4530. Republican plurality, 38,424. In 1892 the same towns voted as follows: Cleaves (Rep.), 67,900; Johnson (Dem.), 55,397; Hussey (Pro.), 3864; Bateman (Pop.), 2888. Republican plurality, 12,503.

Need to Be Weeded Out.

CHIAPAS, Mex., Sept. 14.—Indications point to bloodshed unless Mexico and Guatemala come to some understanding as to what shall be done with the bands of brigands who make the border country their rendezvous. Several villages have been sacked by these outlaws and many murders and other outrages committed by them.

McKeesport's Centennial.

MCKEESPORT, Pa., Sept. 14.—This city is celebrating its centennial. Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania and Governor McKinley of Ohio participated in the ceremonies. At the McKeesport line the Demmler tin plate works had erected city gates constructed of tin plate. Here the governors were welcomed.

Schooner and Cargo Lost.

MALDEN, Mass., Sept. 14.—Schooner Maud Pye, of Moncton, N. B., with 110 cords of tanbark, was practically destroyed by fire last night. The Pye went ashore on a marsh, and, as the tide receded, listed to starboard. Fire from the galley stove started the blaze.

Postoffice Ax Falls.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 14.—Assistant Postmaster Williams and Acting Superintendent of Letter Carriers Abbott were dropped from the Providence postoffice yesterday afternoon. Technical irregularities caused the decapitation.

Swept By a Hurricane.

MADRID, Sept. 14.—A terrific hurricane has passed over the southwest coast of Spain, wrecking many small vessels. The town of Gata was partly destroyed by the storm.

To Try Arbitration.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The state board of arbitration has arranged for a joint conference between the striking garment workers, the contractors and the board.

Guarding the Border.

ODESSA, Sept. 14.—The 38th division of the Russian army has been ordered to reenforce the garrisons on the southwestern frontier.

Probably a Suicide.

BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—E. H. Dennison, grand treasurer of the Select Knights of A. O. U. W., who have just finished a convention in this city, died last night in the Fillmore House. It is said that he committed suicide. It is said that Dennison was short in his accounts.

Donovan Was Game.

ROCKLAND, Me., Sept. 14.—Dick O'Brien, who challenges the world at 145 pounds, fought Joe Donovan of this city six rounds to a draw here last night. Donovan stood a severe punishing in the early part of the fight, but O'Brien found him facing him coolly at the last.

Appropriation Has Run Out.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The custom of publishing in the newspapers the lists of unclaimed letters at postoffices will be abandoned, and the lists will be bulletined in the postoffice buildings hereafter. Congress failed to make a sufficient appropriation.

She Took Morphine.

MURPHYSBORO, Ills., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Ann Rogers, sister to the late General John A. Logan, took morphine with suicidal intent. It is thought her life will be saved. Despondency is supposed to be the cause.

To Invade China.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 14.—Chinese authorities now admit their belief that the Japanese intend to attempt an invasion of China. Chinese re-enforcements are being pushed to the front as rapidly as possible.

LADIES' JACKETS, CAPES AND SUITS

For Fall and Winter Wear,

Embracing all the fashions and combinations of new fabrics that will be in vogue in all the fashion centres of the world the coming season. Tell your Friends. Tell your Neighbors. They'll be glad to know that today we are displaying an excellent assortment of New Garments. Here are hints, just suggestions, of the many New Garments to be found in our stock.

Ladies' Jackets

Are shown in various lengths, ranging from 38 inches to 46 inches, and our assortment of fabrics is simply marvelous. Those who dress correctly will readily observe that our styles are thoroughly consistent with good taste and free from the exaggeration of fashion usually found in lower grades of ready-made garments.

The Golf Cape May Be a Fad This Season!

But all fads are not follies. The Golf Cape is not only a sensible but a beautiful garment. Ladies of discriminating tastes, extremely judicious buyers, have already declared that for dainty neatness, real style, good, serviceable garments, these goods excel.

OUR STOCK OF FUR CAPES

Is absolutely complete. This season we are making big efforts for a Fur Cape trade. Your interest in these garments cannot begin until you see our styles, examine and appreciate the workmanship. If you will call today or tomorrow at our store you will have an opportunity.

Ladies' Suits

FOR FALL WEAR

Are made in a wide range of handsome materials and designs, of which we are showing a selection of the most approved designs. Excellence of workmanship and value of material are all demanded by purchasers of ready-made suits. These requirements are all met in every detail by the goods shown in our department.

THE FARMERS WERE THERE.

OPENING DAY OF THE COUNTY FAIR AT FAIR GROUNDS.

Exhibits Are Good, But the Principal Attraction is the Horse Racing—Lowell Horses Win in the Races. While a Bicyclist Could Not Keep Up a Rapid Gait.

A better day atmospherically speaking, for the opening of a county fair than that which greeted the farmers and other members of the Middlesex North Agricultural society on the occasion of their opening yesterday could not be desired. Of course the first day, or rather a good part of it is taken up with preparatory work and is not the most interesting day of the three yet the attendance yesterday was very large considering this fact, the fine weather evidently inducing many to attend.

The fair grounds presented the same gala day appearance common to each year's fair. There were refreshment and lemonade stands innumerable, while here and there the loud mouthed fakir invited all to twirl the festive sphere at the head of the smiling "bluff" coon, the usual "Little Jenny" cigar being offered as a premium. Martin Mack had his new and gaudily painted lunch cart on hand and many of the rural visitors mistook it for an exhibit.

Sergt. Webster and a corps of policemen were on the grounds looking for trouble which fortunately never occurs at the fair, while Inspectors Allen and Lallamme dodged in and out of the crowds on the lookout for the members of the light fingered gentry, who follow the fairs.

At the same old place on the grounds near the stables the Hood's farm people had their cattle on exhibit, though but few of the famous animals were seen yesterday as they did not arrive until this morning.

The exhibition hall is filled with hundreds of exhibits and but few changes were noticed in it.

The basement of the main building has been re-floored and contains a fine exhibit of all kinds of poultry. Supt. John H. Nichols says this year's poultry show will be the best ever seen.

The floral department is unusually attractive, while that which contains the household work is surprisingly well filled. The other exhibits such as crops, etc., are equally interesting.

But the main attraction is the race course and very good events were run off yesterday though they were not as interesting as those on the program of today and tomorrow.

The first race was in the 2.50 class and was a "cinch" for the winner.

The score was as follows:

2.50 class. Purse $150.

Cora, b. m., D. W. Parker	1	1	1
Maud L., blk. m., F. A. Littlefield, Nashua	2	2	2
Alice K., b. m., F. S. Kingsbury, Lowell	4	3	3
Billy C., b. g., W. Gilmore, Lowell	3	4	4

Time: 2.41 1-4, 2.40 1-5, 2.42 1-2.

In the running race Charlie Keyes' Hot Drop was the favorite, but could get no better than third money. The score:

Half mile running race best 2 in 3. Purse $100.

Billy Crane, b. g., Arthur Thomas, Allston	1	1
Sweet Marie, b. m., James Killan, Brighton	2	2
Hot Drops, b. g., C. F. Keyes, Lowell	4	3
Irene, g. m., W. D. Gordon, Reading	3	4
Matilda, b. m., John N. Murroy, Brookline	5	—

In the running race, Matilda's rider was caught napping in the second heat and was left at the pole. He kicked vigorously but to no avail.

Another feature of the racing program was the mile race between J. A. Dunham of the Y. M. C. A. bicycle club and Monkey Roller, Murphy & Bingham's pacer for a prize valued at $25. Dunham kept with the horse for the half mile making it in 1.15 flat, but on the second lap he dropped out, and Monkey Roller came in alone in 2.30.

The one mile novice bicycle race for medals resulted as follows: Frank H. Quimby, 1st; W. E. Coulter, 2nd; Peter H. Green, 3rd, time 2.39¼.

The three entries in the butcher's race finished as follows: Johnnie K., F. S. Kingsbury, 1st; Glenmore, Fred Tuttle, 2nd; Daisy Bell, Fred Walsh 3rd. A number of boy's races were also enjoyed.

An exhibition of live stock took place this morning and some fine racing is going on this afternoon.

NEARLY MANGLED.

Drunken Man Had a Close Squeeze From Loss of Both Legs.

When the 11 o'clock train backed into the Merrimack street station the brakeman on the rear platform saw a man sitting on the edge of the platform with his feet on the track. The brakeman yelled and scared the man just enough to make him pull up his feet and legs as the cars went by. Another second the man would have lost his feet and possibly been frightfully mangled. The passengers on the platform had a fright as well.

MEN IDENTIFIED

Constable Livingson is Positive As to Men.

Cornelius Nagle the Third Man Under Arrest is Charged With Murder.

Men Arraigned Before Judge Hadley and Held For Examination On the 24th

Chain of Evidence Being Woven Around the Men and Sullivan is Positively Identified—Description of the Men As They Appeared in Court Today—Interesting Facts About the Tragedy.

Cornelius Nagle, aged about 30 years, was arrested at Somerville last night as the alleged third highwayman in the Darcy Foster affair at Billerica.

A very important clue as to the whereabouts of the three men, now under arrest for complicity in the Foster murder at Billerica Tuesday night, has been brought to light in Stoneham.

Night Officer John S. Scalley of that town, at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, while patrolling his beat near the Farm Hill station challenged three men who were coming into the town from the direction of North Woburn. Two of the men were walking briskly along the road in front of a covered wagon. The third man was on the seat of the vehicle managing the horse.

Officer Scalley has a good description and demanded of the men what business brought them into the town at that early hour of the morning.

The reply from one of the pedestrians was, "Oh, we have been over to Reading with some goods and got belated."

The officer could but think there was something suspicious about the men, but as they seemed willing to stop and chat with him as he could not connect them with any misdemeanor he returned their good night as they started down Franklin street toward Malden by way of Melrose.

Officer Scally has a good description of the men. He is positive from what he has heard of the general appearance of the prisoners that they are the men whom he met.

The horse hitched to the covered wagon seen in Stonham was a little, cadaverous animal, appearing altogether too small for the bulky vehicle. As to the name on the wagon Officer Scalley cannot make a positive statement. He saw the general outlines of the conveyance, but did not endeavor to hunt up any distinguishing characteristics. He says one of the men was tall and rather slim, and the other short and inclined to corpulency.

When the wagon was well into Franklin street, towards Melrose Highlands. Officer E. F. West of the Stoneham department saw it pass at a rapid rate, so fast in fact that he was unable to hail the men before they were out of sight.

It is interesting to note the journey of this much talked of covered wagon, just previous to and after the fatal shooting. It has not been proven that the men who occupied the conveyance were implicated in the robbery and subsequent murder.

The Wagon Marked "P. Sullivan"

was seen on Main street in Woburn up to 9 o'clock Tuesday evening by Officers McKenna and Fountain, who were on duty at that time. Then the wagon dropped out of sight, so to speak, until it was seen by Herbert Marion near Charlie Walker's hill, where the highway climbs up to Burlington, and just before the probable time when Foster was relieved of his money. Then the pursuing party had a conflict, and murder was committed. The covered wagon was at the scene, and Figured in the Fatal Affair.

The constable and his assistants had a good look at the vehicle during the few minutes before and after the melee. They are certain as to its identification.

When the wagon had gone into the darkness the pursuers lost track of it, but the signal man in the tower of the Boston & Maine railroad at North Woburn Junction, about 2 o'clock, saw a covered wagon pass very rapidly over the bridge in that locality.

As the murder was committed about 12 o'clock the men, would have had ample time to cover the distance into Wilmington, where the railroad men saw the team pass. Milkmen often go by at that time in the morning, but there was something about this particular turnout that attracted the man's attention. It may have been the fast driving of its occupants.

It was near this point that Constable Livingstone lost the trail of the wagon tracks because of the hard condition of the road. He gave up the chase and went to Woburn, after learning that the signalman had seen the team pass. It was the opinion of the constable that the men would pass through Stoneham and he tried to obtain telephone connection with the police of that town, but the instrument was out of order and his plan was abortive.

About one hour after the covered wagon passed North Woburn junction, it turned up in Stoneham, and Officer Scalley talked with the men. Had the telephone worked in response to the constable's effort in Woburn, arrests no doubt would have been made.

It is probable that the team was driven from Billerica through Wilmington to North Woburn, thence to Central square, and by way of New Boston street to Stoneham.

The Next Heard of the Wagon.

was in Malden at about 4.30 o'clock, when a policeman got a good look at it and noticed the name "P. Sullivan" painted upon its side. At Malden all trace of men and wagon was lost.

Thus the covered wagon has been traced by the police during the eventful night, and, though the name it bore was not noticed in several instances, there are other points which seem to establish the connecting links in its identity. Though Officer Scalley, in Stoneham, did not see the name, he noticed the horse and men.

The wagon which is supposed to be the one seen on the night of the crime was taken in charge by the Somerville police last night.

Arrest of Nagle.

Cornelius Nagle of Somerville was arrested last night as the third man in the case. He was looked over by Officers Fountain and McKenna, who visited Somerville for the purpose, and it was reported in Woburn at a late hour last night that Nagle was one of the party seen in Woburn Tuesday night by those policemen.

All three men now under arrest on suspicion are related by matrimonial ties, Patrick J. Foley married Patrick Sullivan's sister, but Nagle himself is a single man. They are all associated together in business under the firm name of Sullivan, Ducey & Co.

People Talk About Nagle.

Somerville people who knew Nagle were not surprised at his arrest. Others could not believe him guilty of complicity in the crime. The general opinion seemed to be, however, that the present station in which all three of the men find themselves is rather dark.

It is common talk in Somerville that Nagle's brother in-law, Sullivan, used to peddle liquor around town, from a wagon, in violation of the law.

Sullivan moved to Newton, and after two or three months returned to Somerville.

Since Sullivan returned from Newton he and Nagle have been engaged in carting dirt for builders and contractors.

Mr. Timothy Crimmins, a prosperous Somerville contractor, living on Joy street, spoke well of both Sullivan and Nagle last night. He has had considerable dealings with both.

Mr. Crimmins says Sullivan was at his house at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, only about three hours before the highway robbery of Mr. Foster in Billerica, which led to the murder. It is possible that the testimony of Mr. Crimmins may have an important bearing on the question of the guilt or innocence of the prisoners, as the case develops. Mr. Crimmins says that Sullivan called at that hour to collect a bill, and he paid Sullivan the amount, about $30.

Facts About Sullivan.

A reporter interviewed Patrick Sullivan's mother last night. She refused to talk about the case on the ground that she knew nothing about it whatever. Sullivan's sister, an attractive and ladylike young woman, also declined to talk.

Although Nagle, who lives with the family, had been under arrest nearly four hours, everybody expressed surprise at hearing the news.

There was a general air of gloom over everybody, but there was no indignation expressed over the arrest of two members of the family, and no statements were made as to the whereabouts of the men on the morning of the murder.

The only reply in the case of each person questioned was: "I don't know anything about it."

Mrs. Patrick Foley, wife of the third arrested man, was present at the Sullivan residence. She is an attractive young woman, almost a girl in appearance, and was prettily dressed.

Mrs. Foley says her husband was born in Ireland, and has been in this country about five years. Her husband, she says, has been a laborer ever since he came to this country, has always lived in or around Boston or Somerville, and can give the best references from every man he ever worked for.

"Do you care to say anything about your husband's whereabouts on the night of the murder?" Was asked Mrs. Foley.

"I have nothing to say about it," she replied.

"Will you say positively that he was at home at that time?" she was asked.

"I will not say anything about it, one way or the other," she replied with some asperity in her manner.

This was interesting in view of the reported intention of the three men to prove that they were in Newton on the night of the murder. If they were in Newton, and Mr. Crimmins' statement is correct, they must have gone there after 7 o'clock in the evening.

Held For Murder.

The court room was crowded this morning when the three men charged with the murder of Darcy Foster were brought in and arraigned.

The regular business was transacted quickly and when the dock had been cleared they came up, Foley in the lead, followed by Sullivan and Nagle.

As they sat in the dock before being called, they were the cynosure of all eyes.

Cornelius Nagle, the latest capture, is the youngest of the trio, and has barely reached his majority. He is of medium height and rather slim, with light blue eyes, short hair and a week's growth of hair on the upper lip. He wore a flannel working shirt, brown cardigan jacket, light trousers and brown stiff hat. As he sat in the dock, he appeared unconcerned, probably not fully realizing the awful charge against him. His sister is the wife of Sullivan.

Patrick Foley is older and of light complexion with red moustache. He was the best dressed of the three and was attired in a black suit, with a white shirt and no collar. He also seemed indifferent. He is married to Sullivan's sister.

But not so with Sullivan for he appeared worried over his fate and listened attentively to everything which transpired, his face appearing considerably drawn. He is the one of the three who would be picked out as the probable guilty party. He wore a black cutaway coat and light pants and wore a flannel shirt. He has curly hair and is a big man in stature.

Lawyer F. P. Curran of Woburn appeared for all three and waived the reading of the charge which was murder.

They pleaded not guilty.

Judge Hadley has decided to hold the hearing in Lowell at the police court and the date set was Sept. 24.

The prisoners were committed to jail without bail, and will be transferred to the East Cambridge jail, to be nearer their attorney.

The government witnesses who recognized were Selectman E. B. Haskell of Billerica, Chief of Police McIntosh of Woburn, Inspector D. J. Kelly of Somerville, Officer James J. Scally of Stoneham, State Officers James Bean of Natick and J. C. Neale of Lynn.

It is said that the strongest case is against Sullivan.

District Attorney Weir and the Lowell police have the case in hand.

Men Are Identified.

It was stated at noon that Constable Livingston saw the three prisoners and positively identified them as the three men he saw on Wednesday morning.

When interviewed this noon Constable Livingston for the first time declined to say whether he really had identified the men, saying that he did not want to be interviewed. It is evident that the police have instructed their witnesses to keep their mouths shut. It is understood that this afternoon a large number of Woburn and Somerville men came here and looked at the prisoners. The mystery which surrounds the case today indicates that the police are growing more confident that they have the right men.

Loupret has photographed the three men and Mr. Wescott took a snap shot of them as they passed out of the station.

MORE POLITICAL BICKERINGS.

FOSS REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR SENATOR.

Mr. Burke Denies That He is a Candidate For Congress—A New Paper to Reconstruct the English Language.

Circulars have been sent to prominent citizens of one denomination only soliciting subscriptions and advertisements for a new paper soon to be started in this city. In the accompanying letter there are two misspelled words, "consistant" and "doctrins." The so-called endorsements of the projects are headed by "corroberation" showing again the novel methods of spelling to be introduced. Not only are American institutions to be revolutionized but the English language is to be remodelled and reconstructed. The capitalization of the circular reminds one of a copy of the scriptures printed soon after Cadmus carried the alphabet into Greece. The sum of $2 in advance is demanded on receipt of the first issue so that the subscribers have to take all risks.

John C. Burke, Esq., denies that he has consented to run for congress. He is willing to stand by the party nominee, but does not seek the nomination for congress or any other office. Undoubtedly Mr. Burke would make an able candidate for congress and would be a brilliant representative of the party but he is not in the race on this occasion. He has stated that although approached by several prominent democrats on the subject of accepting the congressional nomination, he has steadily refused. He is too busily engaged to enter a contest which would draw heavily upon his time

Dr. Lathrop and Andrew G. Swapp are said to have decided upon getting out of the school board this year.

John A. Gately is mentioned as a candidate for the school board in Ward Three. He is a graduate of the high school and a rising young lawyer. He was teacher in an evening school for some time. Dr. Kelley, the dentist, who has been a candidate on several previous occasions is a candidate again this year. He is well known in the ward.

Republicans of this city are all out for E. S. Foss for senatorial candidate. Hon. C. D. Palmer was mentioned for the fight but he is not willing to enter any such contest at present. It may therefore be assumed that Brady and Foss will be the candidates this year and that the fight will be a hot one. Every democrat from this time forward should keep "cutting ice" for Brady.

The republican candidates for representatives have filed their nomination papers as follows:

In the 21st district, Ward Two, George E. Putnam, E. T. Rowell and H. Cluer.

The 23d district, Ward Three, Thomas H. Husband.

The 24th district, Charles F. Varnum and George A. Roper.

The 25th district. Ward Five, Bill Hayes, George F. Morey, Councilman Noble and Charles M. Erskine.

The French republican club met at Jackson hall, last night, with P. A. Brosseau as chairman and Aime Gauthier as secretary. Addresses of a strong republican tincture were the features of the evening.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of George McGovern took place yesterday afternoon from his parents' home on Andover street and was well attended. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Sarah Heenan was buried yesterday from her late home in Sutherland street; services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morang. The remains were interred in the Edson cemetery.

The funeral of Eucstine Benard took place yesterday morning from St. Joseph's church. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Amyot O. M. I. assisted by Rev. Manin, O. M. I. deacon and Rev. Fr. Feat, O. M. I., sub deacon. The church was heavily draped and presented a sombre appearance. The choir was directed by A. N. Duval and rendered the plain Gregorian chant, Philias David and A. N. Duval sustaining the solos, while the choruses were by the full choir of which deceased was a member. At the Offertory, Miss Angeline Cote rendered "Pie Jesu." The bearers were Henry Lanthier, Edward Montplaisir, Hormisdas Gervais, Henry Willbrenner, Absolon Legault and Louis M. Lemerise. The floral tributes included a pillow inscribed "sister" from the family of the deceased; a "broken lyre from a number of friends, a spray of roses, Mrs. M. E. Jutras, Montreal, Can.; spray of lilies, the Lemerise family; spray of snow drops, Mrs. Gaspard Drainville, Woonsocket, R. I.; spray of white roses, Miss Montplaisir; bouquet, Mrs. Brigham; wreath of immortelles, Miss Minnie Davey; spray of roses and mignonettes, Mrs. Duval; spray of roses and ferns, Miss Charlotte; bouquet, Mrs. L. P. Turcotte; spray of tube roses and palms, the Misses Jennie and Ella Burke.

A Lawn Party Next Week.

At the meeting last evening, Scotia lodge, I. O. G. T., arranged for a lawn party at Cameron's farm in Dracut Sept. 20. The following literary program was rendered: readings by W. Large, C. Mitchell and J. Scott, vocal solos by J. Wilson, A. McDougald and F. Irwin, a dialogue by L. Mitchell and J. Scott, and a charade by A. Sutcliffe and W. Large.

No. Billerica council, R. A., will hold a concert in Talbot Memorial hall, this evening. A fine program will be given.

A MALICIOUS ACT.

Story of an Elopement Which Gossips Busily Circulated Was Entirely False.

The story of an alleged elopement printed in THE SUN of yesterday, is strongly denied, and on investigation appears to be a story set afloat with malicious intent. It was one of many other stories apparently originating from the same source, but this one being of a more sensational nature than the others spread with greater rapidity and was added to by many gossips. As a matter of fact the gentleman described yesterday, THE SUN is informed, is a very well known and highly respected citizen and has not been out of town.

DESERTERS DID IT.

Substitutes in Veteran Firemen's Ranks Failed to Do Their Work.

The Veteran Firemen did not win a prize at the annual tournament held in Pawtucket yesterday. The reason was that nearly all the substitutes taken down backed out and spent the time carousing down town, at least this is the reason given out for defeat. Of 120 men taken down only 35 responded to the brakes and the Lowells were 16th with 163 feet 23-4 inches. The veterans came home feeling pretty blue. The machine will not be taken out again unless manned by the veterans themselves.

POLICE COURT.

Hadley, J.

Seven drunks.

James E. Dolan was sent to jail for 20 days to sober up.

Mary Bryton was sent to the workhouse for eight months.

Franklin J. Henderson was found guilty of non-support of his wife and was sentenced to jail for three months. He appealed and was held for the Superior court.

James Burns for alleged neglect of wife had his case continued.

Ellen Toohey, alleged keeping liquor continued until tomorrow.

Peter Guiley, charged with removing baggage was defaulted.

DEATHS.

John Sullivan, aged 85 years, died this morning at the residence of his daughter, 150 Howard street. Deceased was an old and respected resident of Chelmsford Center and was widely known in the place. His wife died about a year ago. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. James McCarthy of Howard st. Burial will take place Sunday afternoon.

James J. Brown died this morning at his home, 182 South street. Deceased was a brother of "Ted" Brown, the fireman, and will be remembered as the gardner at the Catholic cemetery. He will be buried tomorrow morning from St. Peter's church.

Hattie F. Bent, aged 31 years, died at her home, 7 Walnut street, Tewksbury, this morning. She was the wife of Augustus S. Bent.

France H. Ohlson, son of Frances and Anna Ohlson, died today at the parents' residence, 905 Gorham street, aged 6 months.

A Dracut Barn Warming.

A number of friends of A. B. Thissell, the carpenter, residing on Methuen street, called upon him last evening, in response to an invitation and assisted him in "christening" his new barn, which has just been completed. Dancing was enjoyed till nearly midnight and between dances Matthew Garrigan and H. C. Thissell entertained the party with harmonica solos.

Advised to Stay Out.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 14.—The textile amalgamation held an adjourned meeting yesterday afternoon to receive an answer from manufacturers to the request for a conference. No answer was received, as many of the manufacturers are out of town, and those here claim that there is nothing to confer about. It was voted to recommend to different unions that all operatives remain away from the mills in case an attempt was made to start any of them under a reduction in wages.

Ex-Sultan Is Dead.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 14.—Ex-Sultan V, who was deposed Aug. 31, 1876, in favor of his younger brother, the present sultan, Abdul Hamid II, is reported dead. When Murad was deposed he was declared to be suffering from idiocy. He was born Sept. 21, 1840, and was proclaimed sultan on May 30, 1876.

Liquor Probably to Blame.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Sept. 14.—William Chapman, 37 years old, a locomotive engineer, is under arrest for an attempt to shoot his sister. Chapman, it is alleged, has been drinking for a week. His wife has left him on account of his dissolute habits. William refuses to discuss the matter.

A Treacherous Youngster.

METROPOLE, Ills., Sept. 14.—John Martin a 19-year-old white boy, is under arrest for committing an assault upon Maria Cooley, a 70-year-old colored woman. Martin was thwarted in accomplishing his purpose by the old lady drawing a butcher knife after he had thrown her down.

A Plucky Pacer.

MEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 14.—Gil Curry in the 2:12 pace at Mystic park yesterday did the prettiest racing of the meet. In the third heat he threw a shoe, lost a boot and cut himself at the half, but came in from third place half a length ahead of Roan Wilkes.

Couldn't Move It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—It has been found impracticable to attempt to move the administration building of the World's fair at Chicago to Atlanta. The Chicago Wrecking company will get the building for $3000.

Injuries May Kill Him.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Sept. 14.—William Verrill, a stevedore, fell 30 feet from top of a wharf to the deck of a vessel and received internal injuries which will probably prove fatal.

New National Bank For Vermont.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The application for authority to organize the national bank of Bristol, Vt., has been approved by the comptroller.

Texas Trains Tied Up.

SAN DIEGO, Tex., Sept. 14.—Seven hundred feet of track on the Mexican railroad have been washed away by the floods. All trains are tied up.

Gotham Favors Morton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The regular Republican organizations held conventions last night to select delegates for the Republican state convention. At least 69 of them are said to be Morton men, 30 anti-Morton and 17 doubtful.

Mr. Charles J. Gallagher, the High street pharmacist, has returned after a delightful trip to Washington and Baltimore.

WITNESSES MUST NOT TALK TILL AFTER INQUEST.

Prisoners Have Been Sent to East Cambridge Jail.

As Judge Frye is expected to hold an inquest into the murder case and report his finding to Judge Hadley the witnesses for the government have probably been instructed to keep a close mouth, as one farmer said this morning "go way, I don't want to talk to you about the case."

It is said that Andrew Benson of Billerica will identify Foley as a former farm hand and it is expected the government will show later that all three men are acquainted in Billerica.

An Opinion of Prisoners.

A pretty good judge of character who looked the men over in court today said he believed that Sullivan was the man who did the work while Nagle and Foley were simply helpers.

Constable Livingston's identification of Sullivan is as the man who held the horse.

TOMORROW'S BARBECUE.

Everybody is Inquiring About It—The Ox Was Slaughtered Today and Dressed for the Roasting.

Everybody will refrain from eating breakfast tomorrow so they can eat a big share of the roast ox at the Lakeview barbecue tomorrow. Mr. Allen has everything in readiness and the roasting will begin early tomorrow while the feed proper begins at one o'clock. The cost is covered by a Lakeview round trip ticket, and the barbecue will be the first ever held in this vicinity.

FIRE AT BEDFORD.

It Destroyed Clark's Saw and Grist Mill and Dwelling and Barn.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BEDFORD, Sept. 14.—Clark's saw and grist mill here were burned last night together with the house and barn, although some furniture and the horses were saved.

Mr. Clark conducted the business of box manufacturing, and put up kindling for the market, so the stock was of a most combustible nature.

The long continued drought had so reduced the Shawsheen river that the mill pond furnished little water for the fire department.

The loss will amount to nearly $10,000; partly insured.

A few years ago Mr. Clark lost his dwelling house and most of his furniture by fire.

Tried to Kill His Daughter.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

HAVERHILL, Sept. 14.—William Chapman, residing at Dustin square, attempted to shoot his daughter last night, but the bullet went wide of its mark. A revolver was taken from him by neighbors and he was locked up.

Died of a Broken Neck.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

ATTLEBORO', Sept. 4.—John Brown, aged 53 years, was found with his neck broken at the foot of a flight of stairs this morning.

They're Going Abroad.

The following Lowell people are booked through Murphy's steamship agency to sail from Boston tomorrow on the Cunard line steamer Catalonia for the old country: James Lane, Andrew Jorgensen, Laura Jorgensen, Samuel McAdoo, Mary A. McAdoo, Maggie A. McCarthy, Bridget Deneby, Jane Williamson, Sarah Doran, James Davey, Patrick Davey and Annie Davey. Mr. Murphy will accompany the passengers to the steamer.

Out of the Race.

The Farmers, or Sturtevant Unknowns, took another drop last evening. They ran up against the Highlands and when the crash came they did not know what struck them. The only man on the Farmers to make any kind of a show was Leighton with 508.

Grover was high roller, his score being 520, and the single string record went to Morse with 209. The score was Highlands 2393, Farmers 2188.

Business is Not Very Good.

It is stated on good authority that the number of cases of goods packed and sent to the shipping department of the Merrimack company last week was as large as for any previous week in the year.

Yesterday about 8600 pieces of cloth, with 50 yards or more to the piece, were printed, and the amount printed during the first four days of this week was about 3400 pieces.

Mr. Jean's Reception.

Mr. August U. Jean the popular overseer in the Lawrence mills entertained a party of friends, at a pleasant musicale, at his home, 184 Tremont street, last evening. The majority of the participants were members of St. Joseph's church choir, and the assemblage was treated to a rare musical entertainment.

A Former Lowell Man.

Samuel B. Shapleigh the prohibitory candidate for lieutenant governor was born in Lowell in 1844 and went to Boston to live 1858, there he received his education, at Harvard. During the war he served in the 45th Massachusetts regiment. He has been the prohibitory candidate for mayor of Boston.

The Farmers' Parade.

An unusually good exhibition was made by the farmers in the parade this morning on the way to the Fair grounds. The cars were crowded at noon so a big attendance today was assured.

THE NEW PROBATE JUDGE

SKETCH OF HON. GEORGE F. LAWTON OF CENTRALVILLE

Who Will be Confirmed by the Executive Council Next Thursday to Fill a Position Under a New Law.

Lawyer George F. Lawton who will become an "honorable" if confirmed as judge of probate and insolvency, under the new law on Thursday next was born in Lowell, 47 years ago.

He was graduated from the public schools, enlisted just before the close of the war—they wouldn't take him before on account of his age—and then entered Williams college, graduating in due time. He was principal of the Green school several years, first on Middle street and later in the new building. He was admitted to the Middlesex bar in 1877, Judge Charles S. Lilley gaining admission at the same time.

For several years Mr. Lawton had an office in Boston as well as in Lowell, making a specialty of cases coming under the national bankruptcy act. He closed the Boston office when it ceased to be a law. He was elected city solicitor in 1880, and served the city in that capacity also in '81, '82, '85 and '86. In the latter year he resigned to become superintendent of schools, having been elected to fill an unexpired term. For five years after that he was unanimously re-elected, when he declined to serve longer, returning to the practice of law, and again opening his desk in the office of his brother, ex-Senator Frederick Lawton, with whom he had been associated in partnership until 1886.

Mr. Lawton was a member of the school committee in 1874, and was for several years a member of the republican city committee, serving last year as its chairman. He is a Mason having held office in Kilwinning lodge, a member of Centralville lodge of Odd Fellows, a Knight of Pythias, and a member of Post 120 G. A. R. He was married in 1877, and has two children. His home is on Beacon street.

A School Teacher Married.

A wedding occurred last evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist church, when Mr. Hubert H. Logan of C. I. Hood & Co's establishment was united in marriage to Miss Hattie S. Simpson, one of the teachers of the Lakeview primary school. Dr. Seymour performed the ceremony. The King's Daughter's of the First Baptist church graced the wedding. Mrs. Logan is one of their number. Mr. and Mrs. Logan will reside on Third street Centralville.

BARRETT HAS gagged Hayes for the present by a challenge to a joint debate.

THIS IS the season of agricultural fairs. The Old Middlesex North should be encouraged by Lowell patronage. It is a deserving institution.

Lowell is still floundering around trying to decide on a site for that normal school. —Lawrence Sun.

The state board of education, not Lowell, has had the matter in hand for months past.

THE AERONAUT who descends on a parachute is engaged in a risky business. The aspirant for office who goes up in a political balloon should carry a parachute with him so that there will not be too much of a drop.

COL. LAWLER of Illinois will be the standard bearer of the Grand Army for the coming year. He will witness the mustering out of a large number of veterans if he presides over their destinies for an entire year.

JUDGING FROM the frequent murders in Massachusetts and vicinity it would appear that the murderers have lost all dread of punishment. It behooves the police to ferret out the perpetrators of the Foster murder.

IT INDICATED weakness in Randall of Fall River to appeal to Gov. Greenhalge against the police commission's opposition. There is nothing in the constitution of the commission that forbids them exercising the rights of citizenship.

THE SITUATION in New Bedford and Fall River is not very encouraging. The New Bedford operatives are in hopes the mills will start up soon but they have no certainty in the matter while the Fall River operatives now idle want a ten per cent. increase in wages on resuming work.

THE MAIL pretends to see only a contest for the sub-committeeship of the Lincoln school in the delay in opening the building and in electing a principal. There is no such contest. The chief cause of the delay is a contest between republicans and democrats for the office of principal.

THE WEATHER indications of the Lynn Press read thus:

It may not be amiss to remark that it has been extremely hot during the last few days. It will be hotter in the next eight and a cool wave need not be looked for until after the republican caucuses.

It is in the thick of the Barrett-Hayes fight.

The Lowell SUN wonders if candidate Busiel, whom the New Hampshire republicans have nominated for governor, is a "man of destiny." We cannot answer as to that. But the delegates who nominated him know him to be a man of money.—Waltham Tribune.

The delegates know that for a fact do they? Does this imply that Busiel used money to secure the nomination?

SOME POPULAR GRIEVANCES.

The board of trade should lecture the city council on the admission of a lot of fakirs and itinerant dealers who take a store for a week or two to flood the city with alleged bankrupt goods which are nothing more or less than the rubbish of shop worn stock from large sweat shops in various parts of the country. They go from town to town cheating and imposing upon the people and passing off their rotten goods at more than a fair value. This is an injustice to the regular merchants. The latter should form a league to drive all the itinerant dealers and fakirs out of the city.

Another injustice which is practised upon the people is that of allowing a plumbers' trust to be established. All competent plumbers are to be registered and nobody else can do any plumbing on buildings without violating the law. It appears now that the plumbers having the business thus confined to a select few make prices to suit themselves. There are loud complaints of extortionate charges among property owners but it appears that since the board of health has endorsed the plumbers' guild there is no remedy. The whole is justified and legalized as a sanitary reform and like other sanitary reforms it is a costly one.

The street watering law is a new piece of legislation of the same character. To those who can water their own streets without expense it is an extortion and an injustice.

The ice monopoly conducted by Daniel Gage is another business which imposes upon the people by extraordinary prices. Ice can be imported from New Hampshire and sold cheaper than it is at present by Daniel Gage.

These are a few things of which the people complain just at present, a few grievances which should be remedied as soon as possible. The people who complain have only to keep on complaining and the desired change will be effected in due time.

When wheat is high and the crop is large and the foreign demand is good we have an infallible indication of general prosperity throughout the country.—Lowell SUN.

Will the SUN explain how the foreign demand for wheat can influence the prosperity of this country.—Lawrence Tribune.

Well yes. If there is a great demand for wheat there will probably be an equal demand for other cereals. And if a great demand the price will be high. This will afford a profitable market for American farm produce and as the farming industry is the basis of national prosperity the foreign demand will thus enable it to thrive and consequently give an impetus to general prosperity throughout the country.

ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOWLTON has applied for an injunction to stop the business of the sugar trust in this state until it shall have complied with certain provisions of the statutes requiring it to file financial statements of its affairs with the corporation commissioners. Any method of throttling this monopoly will meet general approval and the Attorney General by his action has the approval if not the applause of the general public.

IT WAS ONLY BINKS.

He Explains What His Position Is In the Household.

There is a telephone in their residence, and as it is used principally by Mrs. Binks and her friends it is perhaps natural that it should be identified solely with Mrs. Binks, and that Mr. Binks —well, Mr. Binks answered when the bell rang a few nights ago, and this is the conversation that took place:

"Hello!"

"Well?"

"Is this Mrs. Binks?"

"No."

"I mean is this Mrs. Binks' telephone?"

"No; it's the company's."

"Well, is this Mrs. Binks' house?"

"I don't know. I'm beginning to think that perhaps it is."

"What?"

"Yes. I guess it is. Every one seems to think it is anyway."

"Is Mrs. Binks' daughter there?"

"No."

"Well, who is this?"

"Oh, this is only Mrs. Binks' husband, the father of Mrs. Binks' daughter, the man who lives in Mrs. Binks' house and occasionally drives Mrs. Binks' horses. She got him with the house, you know."

"Oh, she did!"

"Yes, she did."

"Tough on Mrs. Binks, isn't it?"

That telephone will probably be taken out of the house.—Exchange.

Geologic Time.

Professor C. D. Wolcott expresses the opinion, contrary to that entertained by some eminent scientists, that geologic time is not to be measured by hundreds of years, but simply by tens of millions. This is widely different from the conclusion arrived at by Sir Charles Lyell, who, basing his estimate on modifications of certain specimens of marine life, assigned 240,000,000 of years as the required geologic period. Darwin claimed 200,000,000 years, Crowell about 72,000,000, Geikie from 73,000,000 upward, Alexander Winched about 3,000,000, while McGee, Upham and other recent authorities claim from 100,000,000 up to 680,000,000.—Philadelphia Ledger

She—Then I am not mistaken. What were you cured of?—Pick Me Up.

He Didn't Like It.

Captain Westfall was until seven years ago commander of a steamboat plying on the Ohio river. The captain happened to be on deck about midnight when a young fellow came dashing out of his room with a dissatisfied look on his face. Of course the captain wanted him to be comfortable and went up to him.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"I can't sleep," was the answer.

"Why, are you sick?"

"No, but I can't go to sleep with one of those d——d things on," the man grumbled.

"What things?"

"One of those life preservers."

"What in the world did you get into one of those circular life preservers for?"

"What did I do it for?"

"Yes."

"Why, isn't it the rule of the boat that passengers are not allowed to go to bed without having on one of those concerns?"

The captain smiled. "You've been worked," said he.

"What!" he gasped shamefacedly. "A cousin of mine warned me when I left home to be sure and put on a life preserver, or you wouldn't let me ride."

The young man slipped back into the stateroom, and the captain did not hear from him further.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I could find no permanent relief until, one year ago, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief then came with it almost immediately, and at this time I am a well woman.

"I absolutely know, not only by my own experience, but by others also, that this is a harmless and sure remedy for:

"Irregularity, suppressed or painful menstruations, weakness of the stomach, sick headache, and female complaints generally. There is no need of so much female suffering. Here is the remedy. It is wicked not to accept the relief it will bring." At druggists.

ELLINGWOOD'S
Coca Wine

Made from fresh Coca Leaves, a pleasant tonic and gentle stimulant, agreeable to the taste, and suitable for young as well as elderly people.

Coca leaves were used by the Indians of South America from the earliest times for every ailment, from a simple cut to Neuralgia and Headache, and while chewing it they pass whole days in traveling or working without food, eating heartily in the evening without inconvenience, and passing the night in refreshing sleep.

ELLINGWOOD'S COCA WINE has been used by our local physicians and is acknowledged as the most reliable of any in use. They have found it to be a palatable, diffusible, stimulating tonic, sustaining life by retarding waste, removing fatigue, and restoring and improving the appetite.

CONVALESCENTS will find Ellingwood's Coca Wine especially useful, as the stimulation produced by a medium dose is slow and sustained, and is different from the excitation produced by other wines.

COLONEL LAWLER

Is Grand Army Commander-in-Chief.

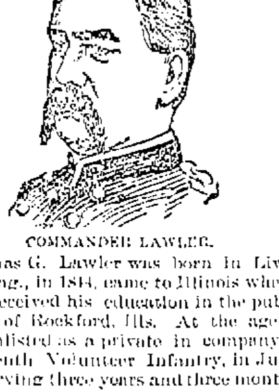
To Aid in Abolishing Alleged Proscription.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 14.—Colonel Thomas G. Lawler of Illinois was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army. Major A. P. Burchfield of this city was elected vice commander and Charles H. Shupe of New Orleans junior vice commander.

The council of administration in the New England states is as follows: Colonel Ebenezer J. Ormsbee, Vermont; Charles A. Barbour, Rhode Island; Courtland S. Darrow, Connecticut; Allison M. Stickney, Massachusetts; Samuel N. Brown, New Hampshire.



COMMANDER LAWLER.

Thomas G. Lawler was born in Liverpool, Eng., in 1844, came to Illinois when a child, received his education in the public schools of Rockford, Ills. At the age of 17 he enlisted as a private in company E, Nineteenth Volunteer Infantry, in June, 1861, serving three years and three months. He was with his company and regiment in every battle in which they were engaged, and with the colors of his regiment was the first man over the Confederate works at the battle of Missionary Ridge, Nov. 15, 1863.

He served as private, sergeant and was elected first lieutenant, but not mustered. He commanded his company for two months during the Atlanta campaign, was elected by the vote of his company and placed upon the roll of honor by order of Major General Rosecrans, commanding the Army of the Cumberland. He organized the Rockford Rifles in 1876, and made it the most efficient and best-known military organization in the west.

He was elected colonel and commanded the Third regiment, Illinois National Guard, for several years, when he resigned in order to give younger officers a chance for promotion. He was postmaster at Rockford under the Hayes, Garfield and Harrison administrations and is now engaged in the lumber and coal business. Colonel Lawler was one of the first members of G. L. Nevins post No. 1, department of Illinois. He had been its commander for 26 consecutive years.

The Government Censured.

Among the resolutions adopted were the following:

Whereas, the 28th national encampment of the Grand Army has been informed of the distress that has fallen upon many comrades and wards of the order through the withdrawal from them of that preference in the public service to which they are justly entitled, and it should be always the grateful duty of the authorities of the national government to accord,

Resolved, That the Grand Army protest to the people of the United States against the conduct of those of their public servants, more particularly at the national capital, without necessary justification or valid excuse, and contrary to the repeated declarations and assurances of the legislative and executive authorities of the government, have deprived many hundreds of honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy, and the widows, sons and daughters of those deceased, of their employment in the public offices and establishments, for the purpose of appointing or retaining other persons, destitute of the loyal and patriotic claims of these victims, or of superior qualifications for the places thus taken from those to whom they rightfully belong.

Resolved, That we view with great concern this attack upon those who, in the hour of the country's great need, laid aside their political preferences and became defenders of the Union, offering their lives to the nation to maintain its institutions and preserve the honor of its flag.

Resolved, That our comrades and wards who are holding employment under the government should have, and they have, the right to demand from the executive authorities the protection awarded them by the national legislature, and any failure on the part of these authorities to so protect them is a violation of law and of patriotic principles, which excites our strongest reprobation.

Resolved, That inasmuch as the efforts of the national and department officers of this organization against this virtual proscription of members and wards of the Grand Army have proved practically unavailing, an appeal is hereby made to the people of the United States for an expression through the columns of the public press, the speeches and writings of public men and the proceedings of public assemblies upon fit occasion of the national sense of gratitude and desire for justice toward the meritorious survivors of the Union forces and those whom the deaths of husbands and fathers have left to the generous regard of the nation.

The Windup.

General Adams returned thanks for all the honors bestowed on him, and Past Commander-in-Chief R. B. Heath installed with all the ceremony of the ritual the elected officers, and all the Grand Army flags, records and effects were turned over to the new officials. Commander-in-Chief Lawler here grasped the gavel, but the new chaplain-in-chief, Haggerty, came to the footlights to pronounce the benediction and the 28th encampment was finished.

The resolutions censuring Colonel Ainsworth's conduct of the pension bureau and supporting Judge Long in his contest with the pension commissioner were not adopted.

This is the first time an encampment has concluded its business and elected and installed its officers in a sitting of two days.

The new commander-in-chief issued his first orders last night, appointing Comrade C. C. Jones of Rockford, Ills., adjutant general, and Comrade J. N. Burst of Syracuse, Ills., quartermaster general, and establishing headquarters at Rockford, Ills.

At the afternoon session of the encampment representatives of the Big Four and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroads guaranteed a 1 cent a mile rate for the next encampment. The Pennsylvania has given a similar guarantee.

A fitting close was a display of fireworks on the Monongahela river at the foot of Smithfield street. The citizens' committee outdid itself and furnished a display that has seldom been surpassed anywhere. At least 200,000 people were out.

Ladies Elect Officers.

The Ladies of the Grand Army elected the following: President, Mrs. Gunlor, Chicago; senior vice president, Mrs. Toby, Indiana; junior vice president, Mrs. Hall, West Virginia; treasurer, Mrs. George, Washington; chaplain, Mrs. Reynolds, Wisconsin.

READY TO STRIKE.

Garment Workers of Boston Will Soon Take Decisive Action.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—At a meeting of United Garment Workers last night delegates from every shop in the city reported in favor of a general strike in this section. If such action is taken, about 4500 men will be involved. The most important grievance is that they are now working under what they call the piece and task system, better known as the "sweating system."

They claim that now they are earning from $4 to $9 per week. They are to demand that the contractors employ them by the week and that their weekly wages shall be not less than $2 for a day of nine hours.

A strong strike sentiment was apparent, and the various speakers urged emphatic action. The trouble in the trade in New York has sent a great deal of work to Boston, and offers what the men believe to be an unusual opportunity to gain their point.

A committee was appointed to draw up a formal demand on the contractors, and Monday night the question will be submitted to a mass meeting of the workers. Should the meeting endorse the act of the council the strike will be at once declared.

Alarmed Over Incendiaries.

MERCED, Cal., Sept. 14.—The people of this town are in a state of fearful excitement. Between daylight yesterday morning and noon there were seven fires, all incendiary in origin. Phosphorus has been found in haymows in nearly all the barns in town. Several stables were destroyed. Sheriff Warfield has issued the following proclamation: "All persons without business in the town of Merced are notified to leave immediately. All good citizens are requested to co-operate and see that the order is carried out before sunset." If the incendiaries are apprehended they will almost certainly be lynched.

Cambridge Took First Prize.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Sept. 14.—At the annual field day and tournament of the New England Firemen's League the contests were hot and sincere and there was fun galore. Five hundred dollars in prizes were distributed among the four leading companies. The Red Jackets of Cambridge, Mass., took first prize, with a distance of 195ft. 10in.; Hartford came next with 193ft. 8in.; Somerville, Mass., took third money by squirting 191ft. 1¼in., and New Bedford, Mass., took the fourth prize on a distance of 187ft ½in. The prizes were $200, $150, $100 and $50.

Good Police Work.

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Sept. 14.—The police of this city last night arrested Cornelius Nagle, 22 years old and married, as one of the murderers of Duroy Foster. Nagle has been identified by the officers, who have already identified the other two prisoners, Foley and Sullivan, as one of the trio seen in the suspected peddlers' wagon on the night of the robbery and shooting. Nagle, Sullivan and Foley, it has been found, are brothers-in-law. The latest, and probably the last, prisoner is close-mouthed, but the police are confident that they have the right men.

Life In the South.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 14.—Hiram Stephens, a merchant of Centerville, had some trouble with John Murphy several days ago, and yesterday the trouble was renewed. Both men opened fire, Stephens receiving a bullet in the abdomen. His 6-year-old son rushed to the rescue, only to be pierced by a bullet in the right side. Both will die.

A New Law Needed.

BROCKTON, Mass., Sept. 14.—Horatio Jacobs and Mrs. Addie L. Eldridge cannot be held legally responsible for the death of their alleged illegitimate child, who died from neglect. Counsel for the government admitted this in court. The woman was put on probation, Jacobs being held in $800 for the grand jury on the charge of adultery.

Satolli Has No News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Mgr. Satolli says that he has received no communication from Rome intimating that he would be recalled, or that he would be elevated to the rank of cardinal. He declined to discuss the probable action to be taken at the consistory to be held in December.

Chicago Builders on Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14—Seven hundred and fifty men at work on the new Marquette building went on strike yesterday and a riot was narrowly averted. Eighteen nonunion Edison electric workers, who were the cause of the strike, were attacked and forced to flee to avoid bloodshed.

Inland Steamer Aground.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—A dense fog interfered with navigation on the upper Hudson yesterday for several hours. The steamer City of Troy went aground near Albany. Her passengers and freight were brought here by transport.

Scalded by an Explosion.

EAST SUMNER, Me., Sept. 14.—By the explosion of a kettle in a corn-packing shop here Walter Fields and William Jordan were badly scalded and Alfred Abbott and Charles Pomeroy received lighter burns.

Upheld by the Jury.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 14.—G. N. Hensen, president of the Citizens' Bank and Trust company, who killed J. B. Weiss, whom he claimed ruined his wife and destroyed his domestic peace, was acquitted by the jury.

On the Chicago.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 14.—Rear Admiral Kirkland, who succeeded Rear Admiral Erben in command of the European station, hoisted his flag yesterday on board the United States cruiser Chicago.

McCullough Came to Grief.

ALBANY, Sept. 14. — J. McCullough, wanted in Boston for burglary, was arrested here yesterday. McCullough called at the postoffice for a letter, where the detective arrested him.

Received 1000 Volts and Will Recover.

HARTFORD, Sept. 14.—Tim O'Leary, a lineman employed by the Hartford Light and Power company, received a current of electricity of 1000 volts in his body and will recover. He was placing a converter on a high pole when he received the shock. His hands and one wrist were badly burned.

A Stitch In Time.

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—The Canadian government has decided to become a party to the convention agreed upon in Dresden in 1893 to prevent the introduction and spread of cholera. Canada will thus have better opportunities to prevent the spread of the disease.

No Arrests Just Yet.

AMESBURY, Mass., Sept. 14.—Dr. I. B. Bolton, who conducted the autopsy on the body of Watson Peck at Newton, denies the story that arsenic had been found. No arrests will be made until the analysis of the stomach is completed, if at all.

ALCOHOLIC DUTY

Will Not be Settled for Some Time.

Which Are Causing the Treasury Much Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The delegation representing the National Wholesale Druggists' association, headed by George A. Kelly, had another consultation with Secretary Carlisle and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller yesterday for the purpose of presenting further suggestions looking to the enforcement of the provision in the new tariff bill for free alcohol for use in the arts and medicinal preparations and other like compounds.

Mr. Kelly presented a brief, covering such suggestions as the committee had formulated looking to the relief of the department from its present embarrassment and to giving reasonable protection to the government from fraud.

After the reading of the brief, Secretary Carlisle pointed out the difficulty of enforcing any regulations which did not define the classes of manufacturers to whom they applied, and the necessity for some of any person claiming the benefit of the law, in order to procure proper supervision and the authority of the department to impose anything in the nature of a tax for supervision upon a manufacturer.

Ex-Governor Boutwell, who was present for counsel for interested persons, answered some of these suggestions, claiming that the power to prescribe regulations included the power to charge for the expenses of executing the law. He cited as an analogous case the fund arising from the sale of cotton during the war, where the expenses of sale and seizure were paid out of the fund collected.

Secretary Carlisle pointed out the difficulty in defining "medicinal preparations and other like compounds," and in the course of the discussion that followed, it developed that certain tinctures and preparations contained as high as 94 per cent of alcohol. This, he pointed out, would give opportunity for the sale of all sorts of alcoholic beverages

As Medicinal Preparations.

The representative of a firm of "bitters" entered a protest against any classification which might exclude "bitters" as medicinal preparations, on the ground that their use would largely increase if druggists, in order to sell them, were requested to take out liquor licenses. A conflict as to the extent of the business of manufacturers entitled to the benefit of the law was made apparent at the conference, when the question of "bonded warehouses" was discussed.

In Germany grain alcohol for use in the arts is free of tax. The secretary said at the conclusion of the discussion that if it could be done it was his duty to execute the law. Some further briefs will be presented before the secretary makes his final decision.

Hodgkins Was "In It."

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Sept. 14.—At the inquest yesterday on the fatal disaster at Hoosac Tunnel on Saturday last, A. M. Crosier, operator at the east portal of the tunnel, said that he understood Operator Hodgkins, at the west portal, to reply on being told that he had not been given extra 245 east: "I am in it, but I don't care so much if no one is hurt."

Viewed From Three Standpoints.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The Republican newspapers regard the manifesto of the Duc d'Orleans as purely platonic and not affecting France in any way. The Royalist papers warmly eulogize the manifesto. Organs of the Clerical party suspend judgment upon it while awaiting action upon the part of the new head of the house of Orleans.

Crew Safely Landed.

ALPENA, Mich., Sept. 14.—A lifesaving crew has arrived with the crew of 14 of the steam barge Enterprise, which went aground at North Point. She will probably go to pieces. She was loaded with grain. But for the timely assistance her crew would have been drowned.

EVIDENCE ALL IN.

Debs' Case Likely to Drag Along Till the End of the Year.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Much to the surprise of every one, the defense announced yesterday afternoon, when the last witness had been heard in the Debs case, that they would state their case on the evidence before the court. Mr. Gregory said that the defense had some witnesses who could modify the testimony, but the cardinal points would probably not be affected. He said that he and his associates would therefore refrain from putting witnesses in rebuttal on the stand, and would be ready after a reasonable time for the preparation of abstracts of evidence to go before the court with their arguments.

This was apparently a great surprise to Mr. Walker and his associates, who represent the prosecution. However, after some preliminary stipulation as to the preparation of papers, Judge Woods adjourned court until Sept. 25, when the arguments will be heard. Twenty days after that the defense will present its briefs and the whole matter will go to the court.

Counsel for the defense express themselves as confident that the government has not made its case on testimony produced and are confident of being able in the end to free Mr. Debs and the other officers and directors of the American Railway union from the contempt and charges.

On the other hand, counsel for the prosecution are quite as confident of success. The judge has never through the trial given the least intimation as to what he thought of the proceedings. He said yesterday, in court, that he rather wanted to hear some collateral proceeding of a similar character before he finally decided the case. It is thought that the case may run well into December before it is finally ended.

A Villainous Trio.

AKRON, O., Sept. 14.—Two colored men broke into the house of George Woehlhueter in the very heart of this city yesterday. The men went to Mrs. Woehlhueter's room and beat and assaulted her. She was then bound and gagged and thrown into the cellar. The house was then fired to obliterate all traces of the crime. Mrs. Woehlhueter's condition is critical. Police and citizens are searching for the villains.

Killed His Wife.

LEBANON, Pa., Sept. 13.—Mrs. Charles Garret, aged 25 years, was murdered here yesterday by her husband, who cut her throat from ear to ear. Garret had just been released from the penitentiary after serving a sentence for assault upon a neighbor. The murderer escaped and is still at large.

Bank Robbers Get $10,000.

DANVILLE, Ills., Sept. 14.—The Citizens' bank at Rossville was robbed of between $9000 and $10,000. The officials locked the bank and went to dinner, leaving the key to the back door sticking in the lock on the inside. The robbers succeeded in gaining an entrance by using nippers on the key.

Brice Will Resign If Censured.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 14.—Friends of Senator Brice here say, that if the Democratic convention next week adopts resolutions censuring him for his course toward the Wilson bill, he will at once resign.

Said to Be Untrue.

ROME, Sept. 14.—Officials at the Vatican deny the story that two suspected anarchists had been discovered lurking in the Vatican gardens.

Was a Funny Old Lady and She Kept Her Friends in a Continual Roar.

My Aunt Sally's first reception in Music hall last night was about as interesting and jolly an affair as was ever held in this family theatre. The piece is a farce comedy clear through and the company are just suited to the lines and parts. Wm. Gray was funny as Milwaukee Behr and his caste was in good hands. Aunt Sally will be at Music hall tonight and for two performances tomorrow.

Louis Aldrich in My Partner is already assured of a big house for the advance sale of seats for matinee and evening is quite large.

On Monday and Tuesday evening the Span of Life, with its bridge of acrobats will be one of the strongest sensational attractions of the season.

A CENTRALVILLE WEDDING.

Happy Event on Tuesday When a Well Known Young Man Took Unto Himself a Bride.

A very pretty wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rhodes, at 2 Fulton avenue, when their daughter, Jessie O., was united in marriage to Mr. Fred A. Dubois, a very well known and popular young man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Sinclair of St. Anne's church. The bride looked charming in a gown of ottoman silk, demi-train, with bridal roses, the veil was caught up with a diamond star, she also carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Jessie M. Jenkins who wore a gown of cream colored silk with pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. David D. Charron of Nashua. After the ceremony a reception was held which was attended by over 200 friends who took the opportunity of congratulating the happy couple. After the reception a bountiful supper was enjoyed by all. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and potted plants.

There were friends present from Boston, Nashua, Manchester, Stoneham, North Acton and other places. Mr. George Gamlin and Mr. Gideon Levarior acted as ushers. The presents were very handsome and numerous.

The groom is an employe of G. C. Taylor & Co., and the bride is a graduate of the Lowell Commercial college. The happy couple left for the White mountains, where they will spend a few weeks.

They will reside at the home of the bride's parents on their return, and will hold a reception Thursday evening, October 4th.

Base Ball Game Tomorrow.

The L. C. A. A. nine will play the Chelmsfords on the Dracut oval tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be remembered that on the previous game the score resulted in a tie 4 to 4. The Chelmsfords will have Hawes, the two Whitneys and several equally good players on their team and the contest will be one of the best of the season. The gate will be 15 cents as usual and the grand stand free.

BILLERICA'S FIRST TRAGEDY.

It Occurred Years Ago When a Lowell Man Stabbed a Billerica Man.

People at North Billerica are now talking about the first tragedy recorded in the town annals. It was years ago when a man named Hemenway had a fight over fishing privileges in the Concord river, at the north village, during which Lynch was stabbed nine times and killed by Hemenway. The murderer was brought to Lowell and tried for manslaughter and got off finally with a short sentence.

THE REED FRATRICIDE.

Hearing in the Case Was Held at Ayer Junction Today.

The hearing and inquest in the Reed fratricide case was held at the police court in Ayer today. District Attorney Wier conducted the case. Tomorrow Williard Reed will be taken before the district court at Ayer and given a hearing. Then he will be remanded to the East Cambridge jail.

In the interest over the Foster tragedy the Reed fratricide has been lost sight of this week. District Attorney Wier has plenty of work on hand.

SOME PLUMBERS ARE KICKING.

REAL ESTATE MEN HAVE OBJECTION TO THE LAW.

What is Said About the New Plumbers' Law and Liability of Forming a Trust.

The new law for the government of plumbers is creating great comment among people of all classes in this city, and opinions are freely expressed as to the justice of the law.

On the face of the act, relative to the licensing of plumbers and the supervision of the business of plumbing, it looks as though the bill was pushed through the legislature for the avowed purpose of organizing a plumbers' trust, which will exercise a monopoly of the business. The question is asked, "why should protection be given the plumbers' trade, while other trades are left open to competition?"

One would naturally suppose that those who have been engaged in the business prior to July, 1893, and who are entitled to licenses as plumbers upon this recommendation alone, would be quite satisfied with the law. Some of them are but the majority are not. Plumbers as a rule are liberal in their views, and the majority are not slow in denouncing those who advocated the passage of the bill requiring an examination of young men who have just completed their apprenticeship after serving three years or more.

Real estate owners also object seriously. A member of a local real estate firm said yesterday, "why in time the plumbers will have organized a trust of great proportions. Here they are setting down what price a man will pay for labor and then having a law passed stipulating that all jobs costing less than $100 will be done by day work. Now this is a 'roast' on the people. We could go around and get figures on small jobs and let them out to the lowest bidder, thereby saving a few dollars, but now it matters not who gets the work, we pay just as much and more than if we let it out by contract."

A number of young men who have been out of their time several months have been notified by the board of examiners that in order to be registered they must pass an examination. Several have endeavored to be registered without an examination but have been unsuccessful.

Men worry and fret when they become involved in a law suit, but they will have more cause to trouble themselves when they run up against the plumbers' act. They obtain justice in a case at law, but there is nothing but injustice in the act regulating the plumbing business.

Already steps are being taken to get the law repealed next year.

Will Attend the High School.

As a result of a recent examination and from the June list the following applicants have recently been admitted to the High school by vote of the High school committee: Martin H. Garo, Elliot Tilton, Kate Minahan, Annie McKenna, Thomas J. Finnerty, Jennie L. Lynds, Annie D. Pollard.

STATE NOMINEES

Put Forward by the Prohibition Party in the Old Bay State.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 14.—The prohibition state convention did all the rafter shaking, floor-stamping and hand-clapping that could be expected of any convention when its president, Professor Evans, told of the wrongs of labor, the persecution of Coxeyites and strikers, and urged no compromise on liquor. "Better wait 100 years. Back to conscience! Back to justice! Back to God!"

The following nominations were made without opposition:

For governor, Alfred W. Richardson of Springfield; lieutenant governor, Samuel D. Shapleigh of Boston; secretary of state, Wilbur G. Farnham of Somerville; treasurer and receiver general, John M. Fisher of Attleboro; auditor, Wilbur F. Purrington of Williamsburg; attorney general, Frank N. Furbush of Natick.

The resolutions were substantially as follows: For suppression of drink traffic, and state sale of liquor for mechanical and medical purposes; against high license and Norwegian system; for extirpation of trusts; for public boards of arbitration, courts of conciliation and eight hours; for free and full ballot and woman suffrage; for perpetuation of non-sectarian public schools and rigid state supervision of private schools; for revision and rigid enforcement of immigration laws; for elastic currency and restoration of silver; for non-partisan tariff commission; for state control of railroad, telegraph and telephone monopolies and government ownership, if need be; for extension of civil service; for prohibition of alien ownership of real estate; for election by direct vote of president, vice president and United States senators; for one day's rest in seven; for uniform laws governing marriage and divorce; for justice from the Republican party in the use by minorities of Australian ballot; for the party itself as "the true party of the people."

BICYCLE RECORDS BROKEN.

BALD CAPTURES THE ONE MILE INTERNATIONAL RECORD

Titus Does Some Fast Cycling—Murphy, Johnson and Butler Gain New Honors.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 14.—Nearly 10,000 people went to Hampden park yesterday afternoon to witness the second day's races of the Springfield Bicycle club's diamond tournament, and they all came away satisfied. It was doubtless one of the greatest days of racing that has been seen in any city this season, and this is proven by the fast time made in every event.

The first race, which was the mile 2:30 class, was won by Fred H. Allen, but he was disqualified, and it is claimed he was the cause of the fall received by two of the riders on the backstretch.

The half mile open was a hard fight between Tyler, Bald and Cabanne, and the first two of these riders crossed the tape together, but the officials gave first place to Tyler, amid shouts of derision from the spectators.

An Accident at the Three-Quarters Mark.

In the one-mile handicap, class A, seven or eight of the riders fell at the three-quarters post and were slightly injured. W. F. Sims, the scratch man, managed to get by, however, and secured third place.

E. C. BALD.

In the one-mile international record race all the cracks, except Tyler, started, and it was the fastest and most exciting event of the tournament. At the three quarters post Sanger made a tremendous spurt and took the lead, but Bald made a faster one and crossed the tape about a length ahead. Bliss also made a great final spurt and came in third, with Cabanne a close fourth. The time was 2:05 4-5, a world's record.

Sanger Wins the Class B Mile Handicap.

The one-mile handicap for class B riders was won by Sanger. Cabanne took second place in this event.

During the afternoon several successful attempts at record breaking were made. C. M. Murphy succeeded in lowering Tyler's world's record of 4:15 3-5 for two miles, paced, to 4:06 2-5, and Johnson broke the five-mile paced record, lowering it from 10:51 3-5 to 10:48 4-6.

Later in the afternoon Nat Butler took another slice off from the two-mile paced, flying start, record, lowering Murphy's time of 4:06 2-5 to 4:04 4-5.

Titus then lowered the hour record, covering 26 miles 1489 yards within the time limit. The world's record was held by Linturn, an Englishman, who covered 26 miles and 700 yards, while Mentjies' record made on the Springfield track last year was 26 miles 107 yards. In breaking the hour record, Titus also lowered several other records.

Returns All In.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 14.—The complete returns of the election show that there is not a Democrat in the senate and only four in the house. The vote of the state is as follows: Cleaves (Rep.), 69,064; Johnson (Dem.), 30,640; Hersey (Pro.), 2615; Bateman (Pop.), 4530. Republican plurality, 38,424. In 1892 the same towns voted as follows: Cleaves (Rep.), 67,900; Johnson (Dem.), 55,397; Hussey (Pro.), 2864; Bateman (Pop.), 2888. Republican plurality, 12,503.

Need to Be Weeded Out.

CHIAPAS, Mex., Sept. 14.—Indications point to bloodshed unless Mexico and Guatemala come to some understanding as to what shall be done with the bands of brigands who make the border country their rendezvous. Several villages have been sacked by these outlaws and many murders and other outrages committed by them.

McKeesport's Centennial.

Schooner and Cargo Lost.

MALDEN, Mass., Sept. 14. — Schooner Maud Pye, of Moncton, N. B., with 110 cords of tanbark, was practically destroyed by fire last night. The Pye went ashore on a marsh, and, as the tide receded, listed to starboard. Fire from the galley stove started the blaze.

Postoffice Ax Falls.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 14.—Assistant Postmaster Williams and Acting Superintendent of Letter Carriers Abbott were dropped from the Providence postoffice yesterday afternoon. Technical irregularities caused the decapitation.

Swept By a Hurricane.

MADRID, Sept. 14.—A terrific hurricane has passed over the southwest coast of Spain, wrecking many small vessels. The town of Gata was partly destroyed by the storm.

To Try Arbitration.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The state board of arbitration has arranged for a joint conference between the striking garment workers, the contractors and the board.

Guarding the Border.

ODESSA, Sept. 14.—The 38th division of the Russian army has been ordered to reenforce the garrisons on the southwestern frontier.

Probably a Suicide.

BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—E. H. Dennison, grand treasurer of the Select Knights of A. O. U. W., who have just finished a convention in this city, died last night in the Fillmore House. It is said that he committed suicide. It is said that Dennison was short in his accounts.

Donovan Was Game.

ROCKLAND, Me., Sept. 14.—Dick O'Brien, who challenges the world at 145 pounds, fought Joe Donovan of this city six rounds to a draw here last night. Donovan stood a severe punishing in the early part of the fight, but O'Brien found him facing him coolly at the last.

Appropriation Has Run Out.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The custom of publishing in the newspapers the lists of unclaimed letters at postoffices will be abandoned, and the lists will be bulletined in the postoffice buildings hereafter. Congress failed to make a sufficient appropriation.

She Took Morphine.

MURPHYSBORO, Ills., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Ann Rogers, sister to the late General John A. Logan, took morphine with suicidal intent. It is thought her life will be saved. Despondency is supposed to be the cause.

To Invade China.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 14.—Chinese authorities now admit their belief that the Japanese intend to attempt an invasion of China. Chinese re-enforcements are being pushed to the front as rapidly as possible.

Embracing all the fashions and combinations of new fabrics that will be in vogue in all the fashion centres of the world the coming season. Tell your Friends. Tell your Neighbors. They'll be glad to know that today we are displaying an excellent assortment of New Garments. Here are hints, just suggestions, of the many New Garments to be found in our stock.

Ladies' Jackets

Are shown in various lengths, ranging from 38 inches to 46 inches, and our assortment of fabrics is simply marvelous. Those who dress correctly will readily observe that our styles are thoroughly consistent with good taste and free from the exaggeration of fashion usually found in lower grades of ready-made garments.

The Golf Cape May Be a Fad This Season!

But all fads are not follies. The Golf Cape is not only a sensible but a beautiful garment. Ladies of discriminating tastes, extremely judicious buyers, have already declared that for dainty neatness, real style, good, serviceable garments, these goods excel.

OUR STOCK OF FUR CAPES

Is absolutely complete. This season we are making big efforts for a Fur Cape trade. Your interest in these garments cannot begin until you see our styles, examine and appreciate the workmanship. If you will call today or tomorrow at our store you will have an opportunity.

FOR FALL WEAR

Are made in a wide range of handsome materials and designs, of which we are showing a selection of the most approved designs. Excellence of workmanship and value of material are all demanded by purchasers of ready-made suits. These requirements are all met in every detail by the goods shown in our department.
